

All Summer in a Day One Pager Project

A one-pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that make up an aesthetically pleasing and detailed interpretation of a subject or piece of literature.

Directions

Share your unique understanding of the text on one page by imaginatively blending your written ideas with colorful images from the story. You should spend at least thirty minutes reading and/or brainstorming ideas before you begin decorating your page. Use a standard size piece of blank paper (8.5 x 11) or you may use a template provided for you.

Below is a list of what should be included on your page:

- Include the title of the short story and the author's name.
- Include a brief summary of the story in 1-2 sentences.
- Include four or more illustrations/graphic images.
- Analyze and explain one theme from the story.
- Choose three of the following literary elements to incorporate into your project: allusion, foreshadowing, symbolism, conflict, setting, mood, tone, irony, characterization, imagery, or any example of figurative language. You will analyze the elements as they pertain to the story.
- You must fill the entire page.
- Your page must be colored.

Grading Rubric

Overall Appearance	Your page is detailed and neat. Images are clear and text is easy to read. The overall appearance is creative and aesthetically pleasing.	10 Points
Information	Your examples and references are accurate and you include all the components required in the directions.	10 Points
Analysis	You show you understand the literature through your comments and use of support from the text. Your explanations are all insightful and depict important ideas from the story.	10 Points
Writing Conventions	You use proper grammar, punctuation, and spelling.	10 Points
Graphics	You choose illustrations that highlight prominent parts of the story. The graphic elements are clean, colored, and are incorporated seamlessly into the work.	10 Points
