

One Pager Project

Asian American, Native Hawaiian, & Pacific Islander Heritage Month

In the month of May, the United States celebrates and recognizes the achievements and contributions of Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islander Americans. AA/NH/PI Heritage Month takes place in May because of several historical milestones, including the 1843 arrival of the first Japanese immigrants, and Chinese laborers' enormous contributions to building the transcontinental railroad, which was finished in May 1869.

A one-pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that make up an aesthetically pleasing and detailed interpretation of a subject. For this one-pager, you will be researching one of the following influential people in history and creating a graphic representation of your work to share with the class.

Directions:

Above is a list of influential people who are of AA, NH, or PI heritage. Choose one person to research and study. You should spend at least thirty minutes researching and brainstorming ideas before you begin decorating your page. Use a standard size piece of blank paper (8.5 x 11) or you may use a template provided for you.

Below is a list of what should be included on your page:

- Include the full name of the person you research.
- Specify where this person is from and where they grew up.
- Include a title of work, group, occupation, or event that this person is most famous for.
- Include one or more quotations from the person you are studying.
- Include three or more words that describe the person's personality.
- Include four or more illustrations/graphic images that symbolize the person's life.
- Include five or more facts about the person that you've learned about.
- You must fill the entire page. You don't want a lot of empty space (if any).
- Your page must be colored.

Grading Rubric

Overall Appearance	Your page is detailed and neat. Images are clear and text is easy to read. The overall appearance is creative and aesthetically pleasing.	10 Points
Research	Your work shows you have done thorough research for the project. Your facts are accurate and relevant.	10 Points
Information	The facts you present are meaningful and were carefully chosen. You clearly depict the person's impact on society.	10 Points
Graphics	You chose illustrations that highlight important parts of the person's life. The graphic elements are neat, colored, and are incorporated seamlessly into the work.	10 Points
Writing Conventions	You use proper grammar, punctuation, spelling, and usage in your analysis.	10 Points

On her 16th birthday, Malala gave a speech to the United Nations that implored peace, particularly for women in Afghanistan and Pakistan.

*"One child, one teacher,
one book, one pen can change
the world."*

Malala was born in Pakistan. She lived there until she was fifteen years old.

Malala became the youngest person to ever win the Nobel Prize in 2014.

She started the Malala Fund to ensure girls around the world have access to a safe education. She graduated from the University of Oxford in 2020.

"I demand of leaders we must invest in books instead of bullets."

She is brave, dedicated, inspiring
