

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

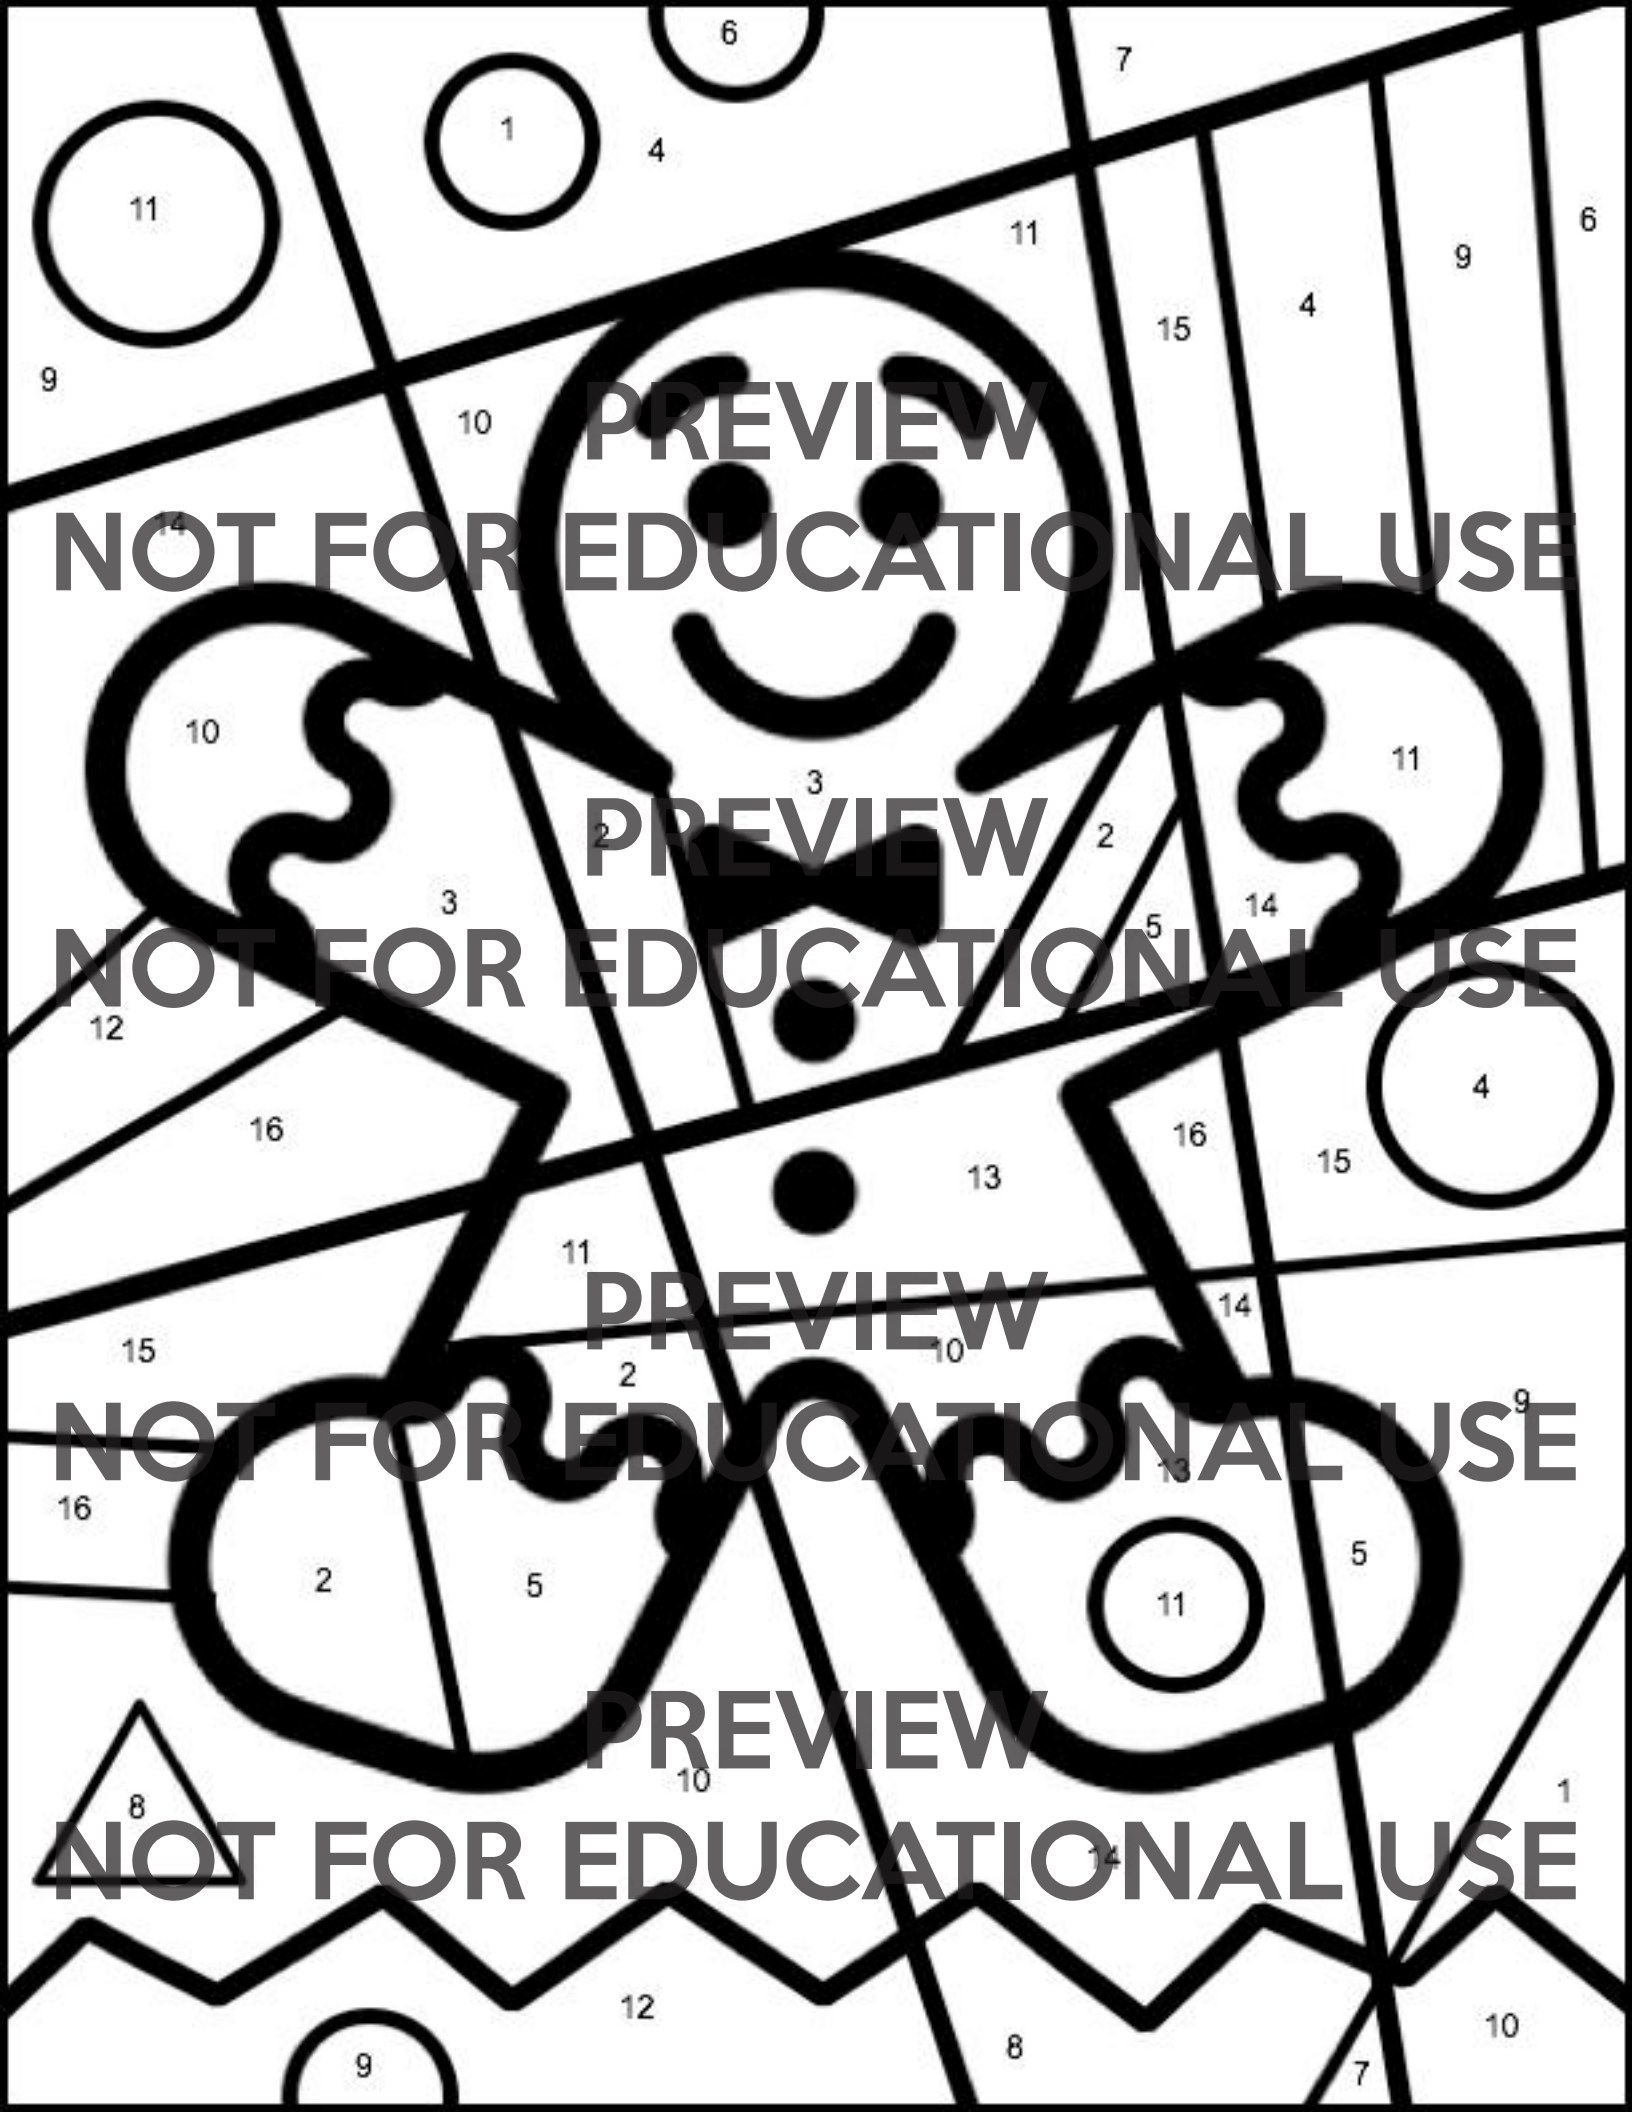

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

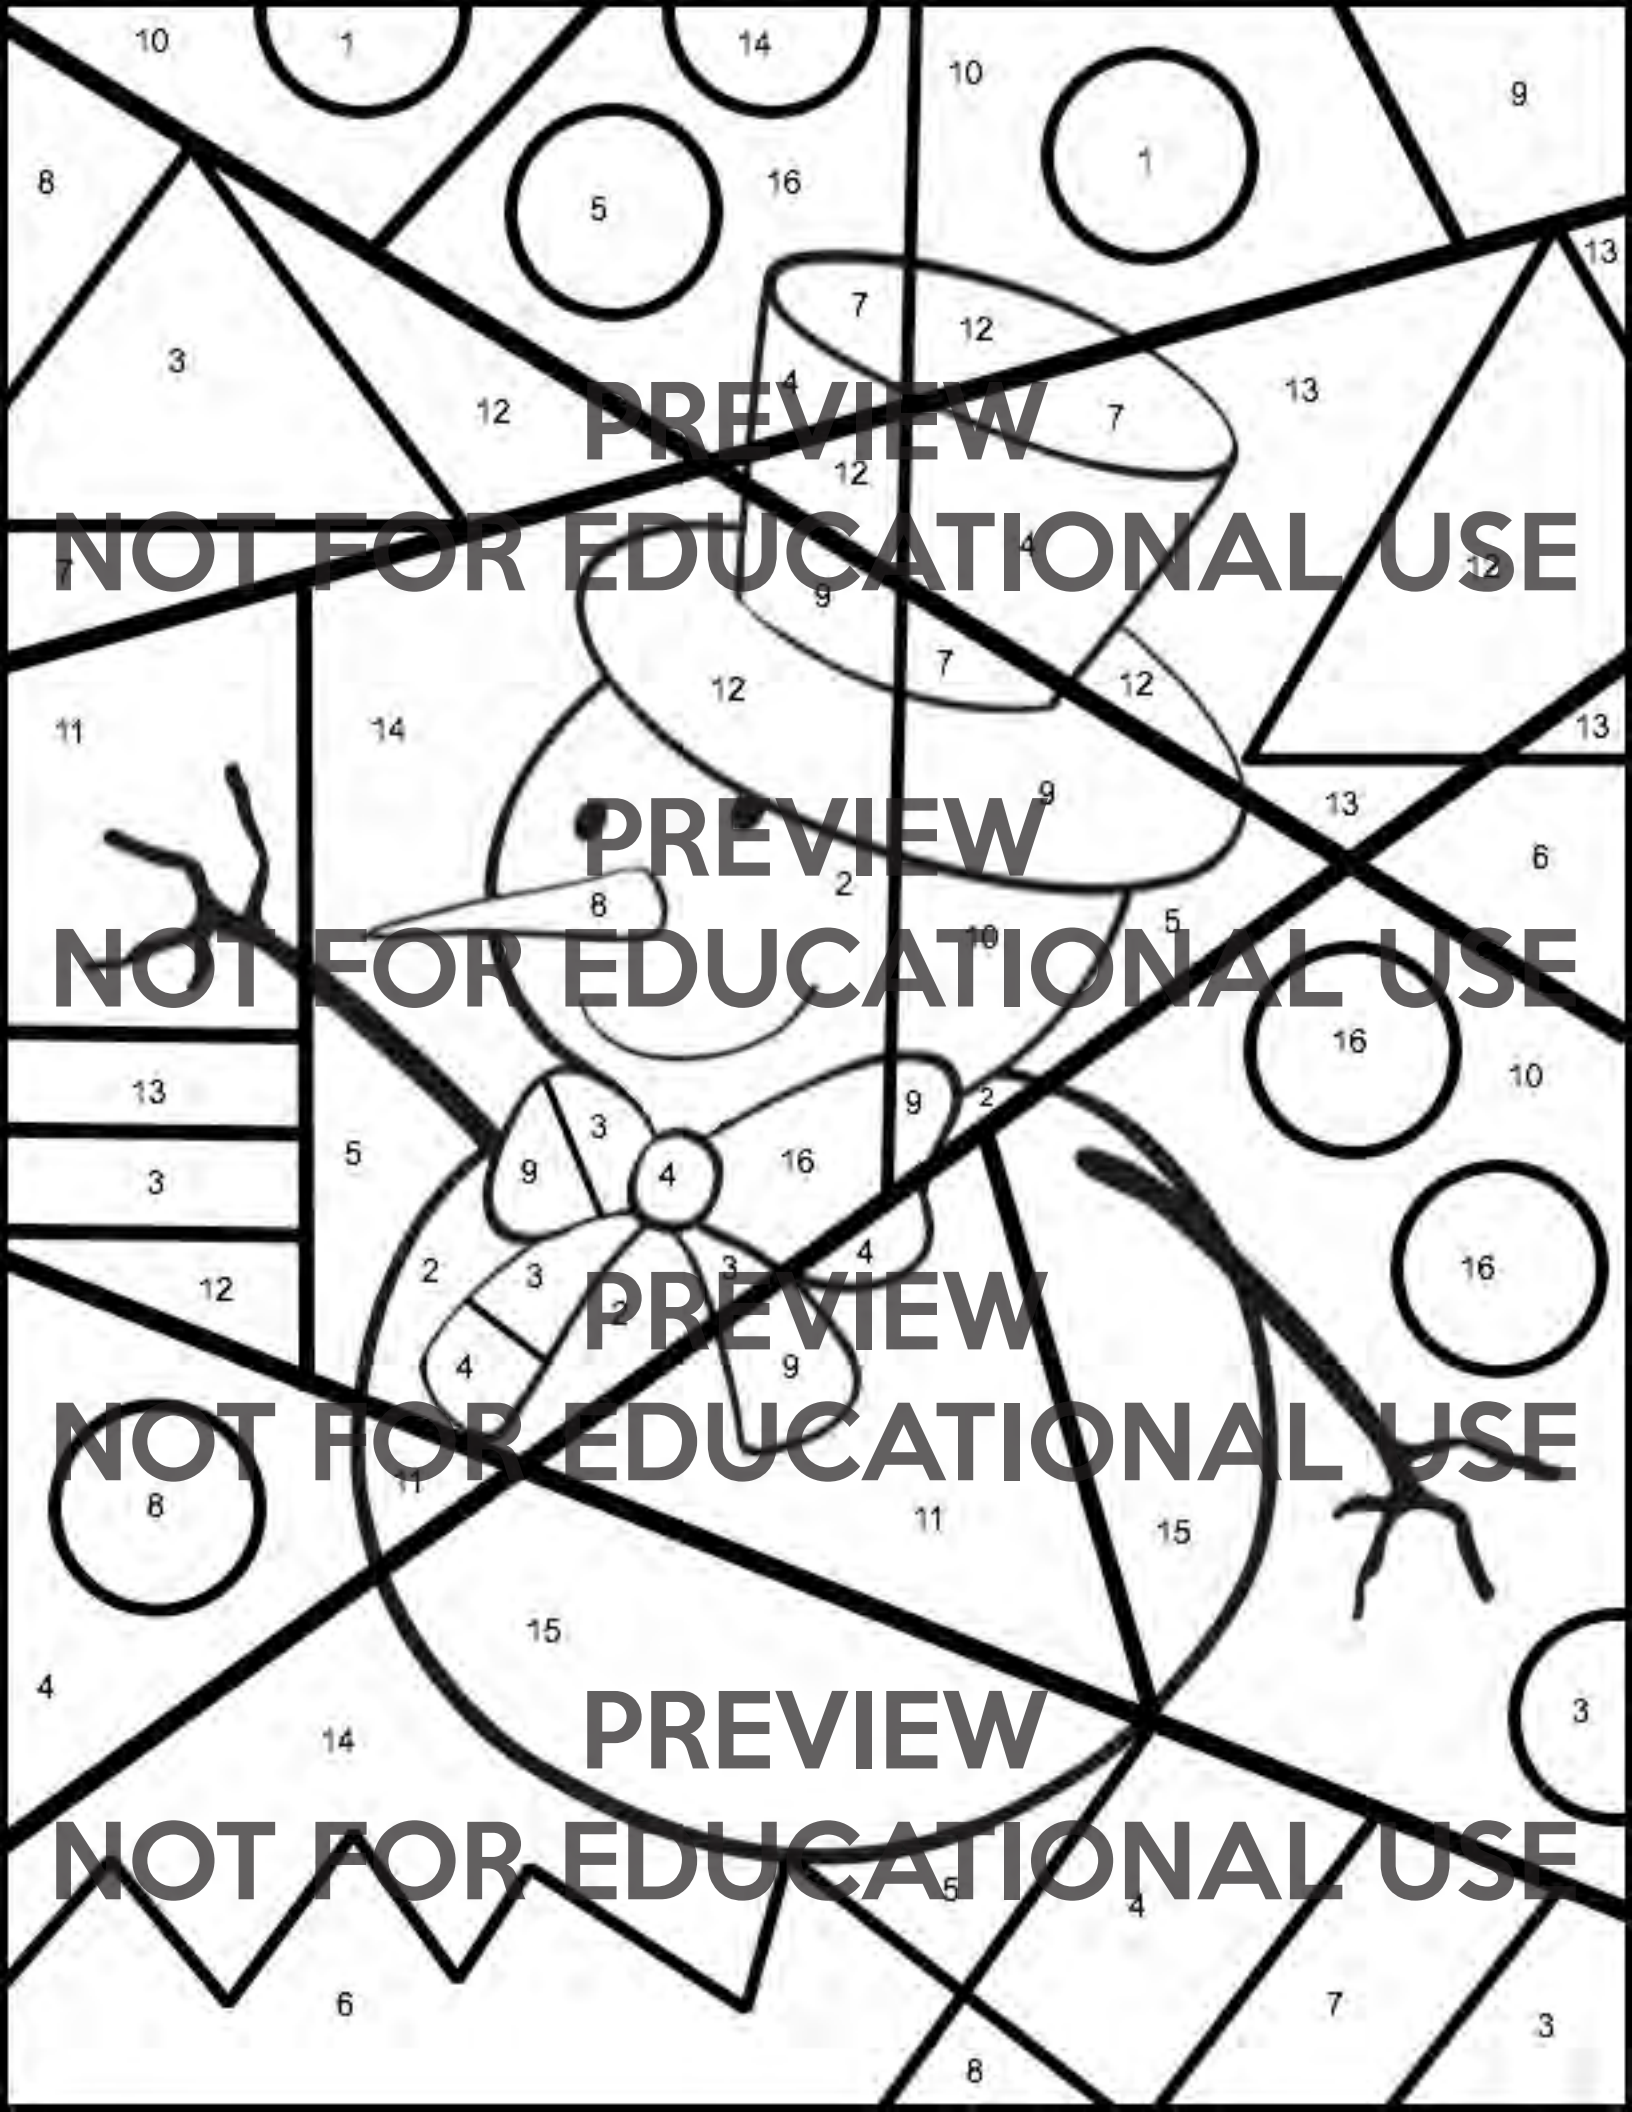

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

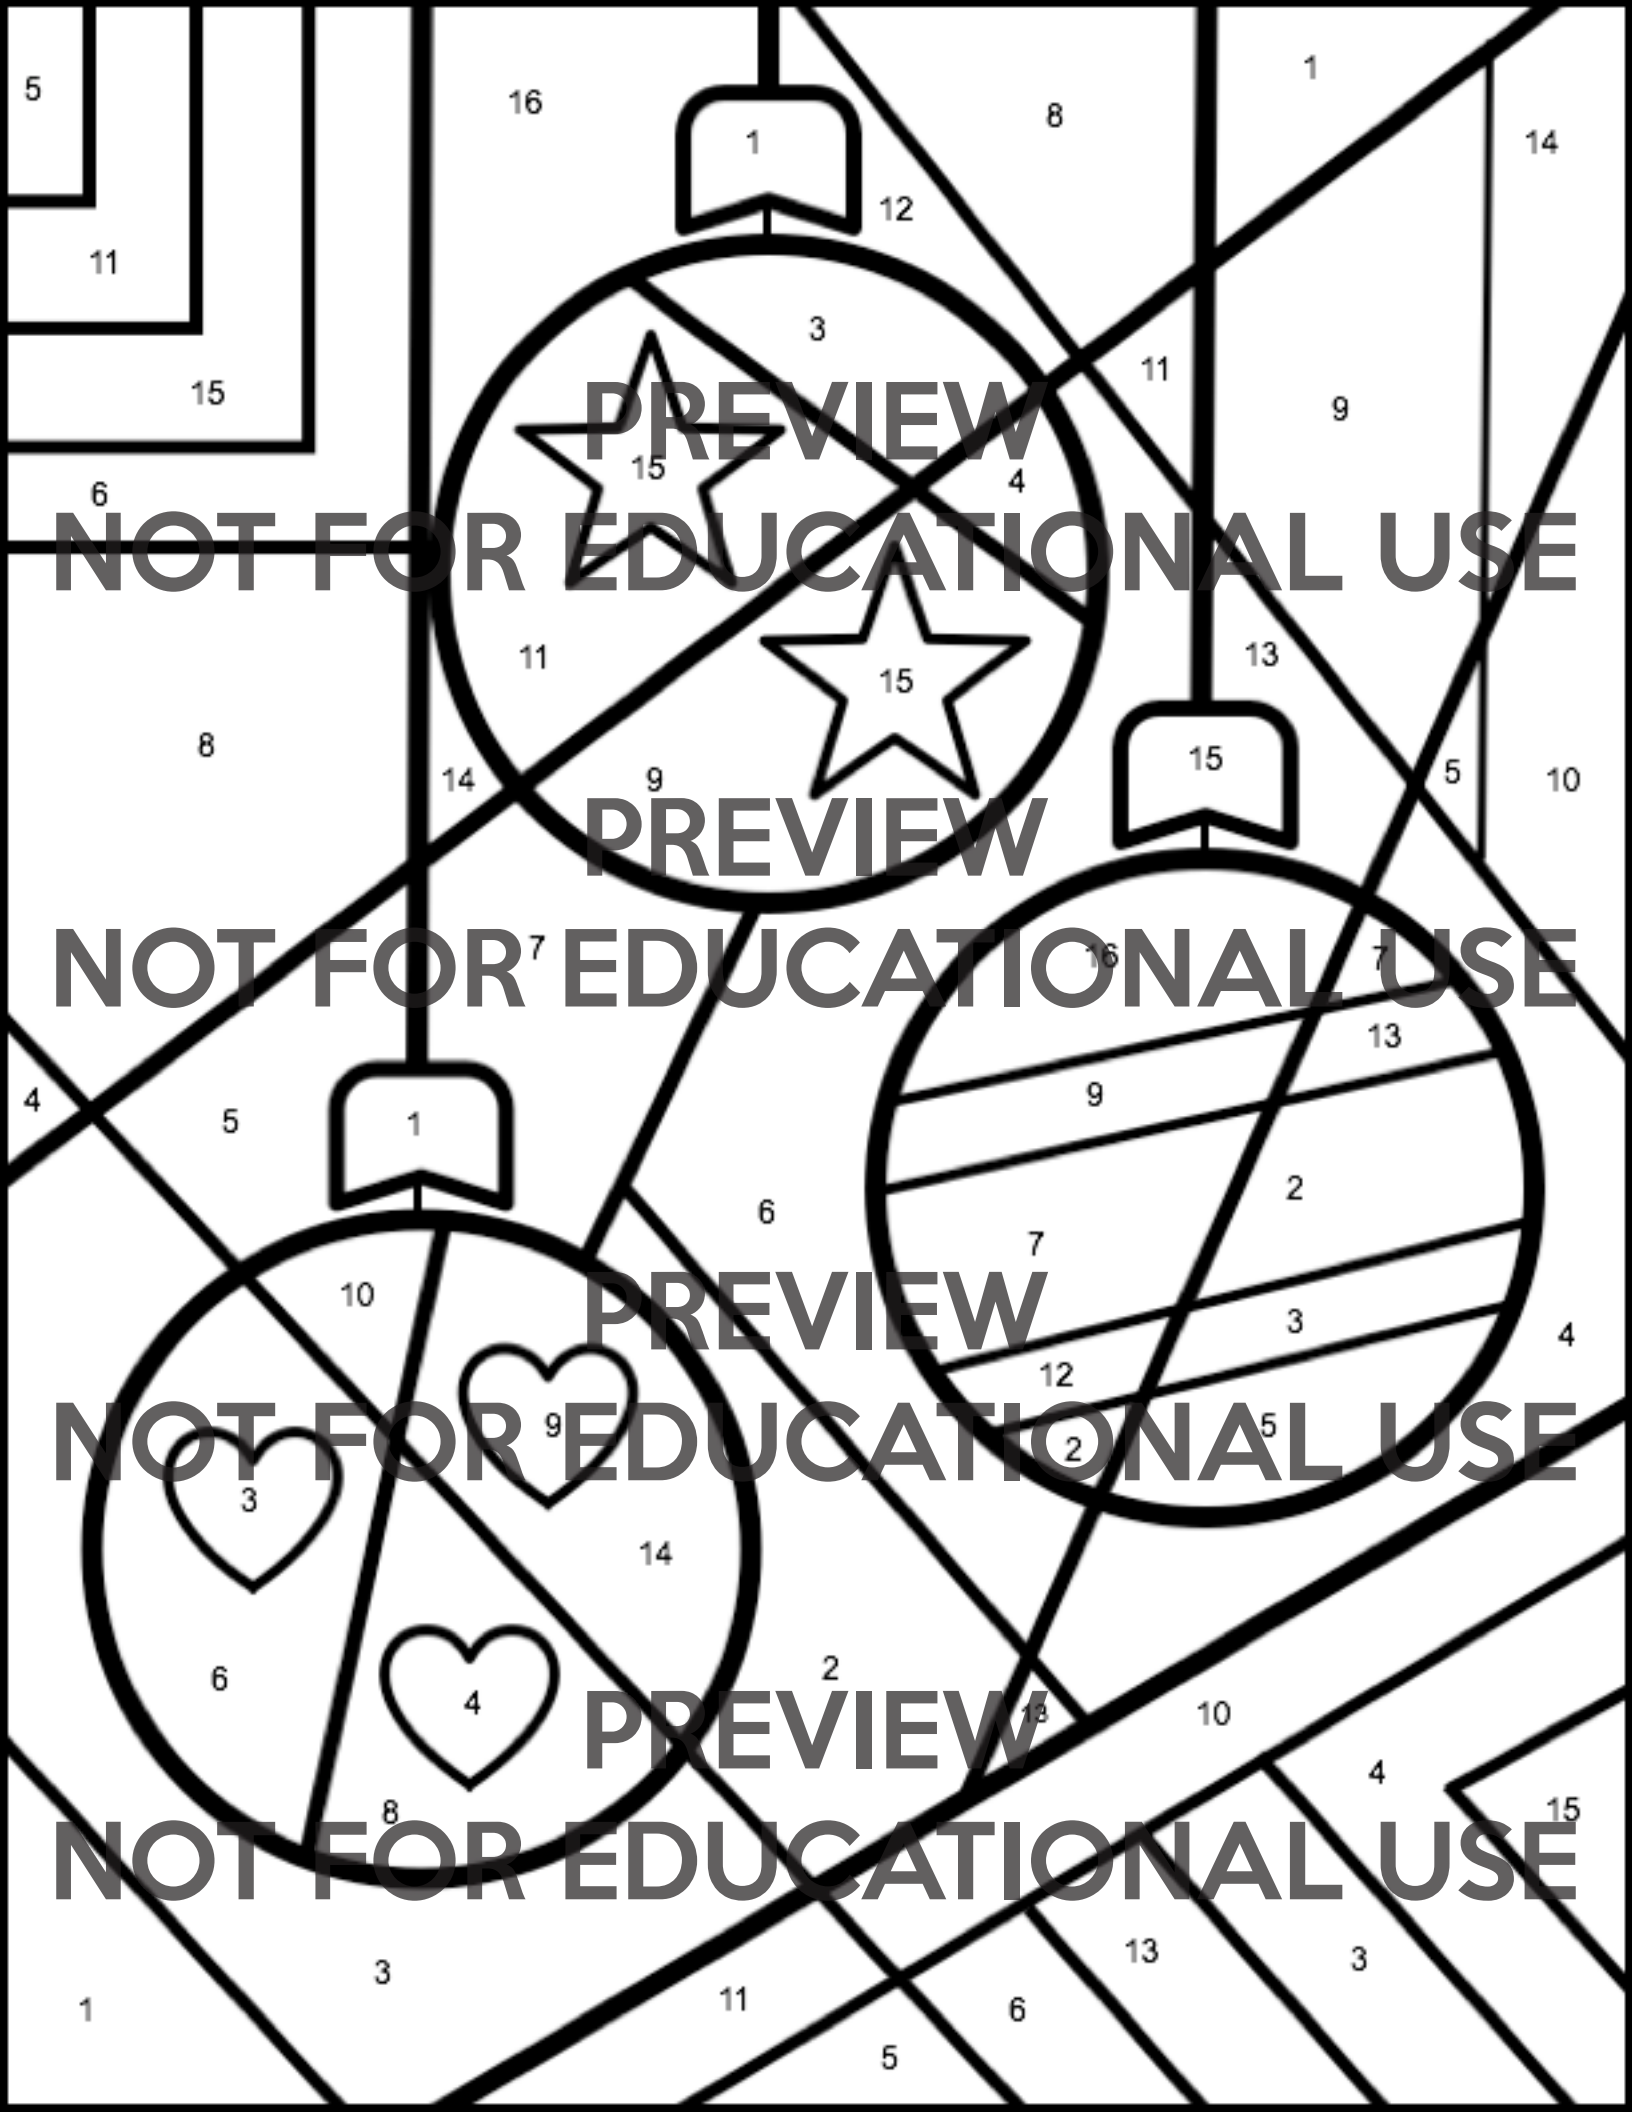

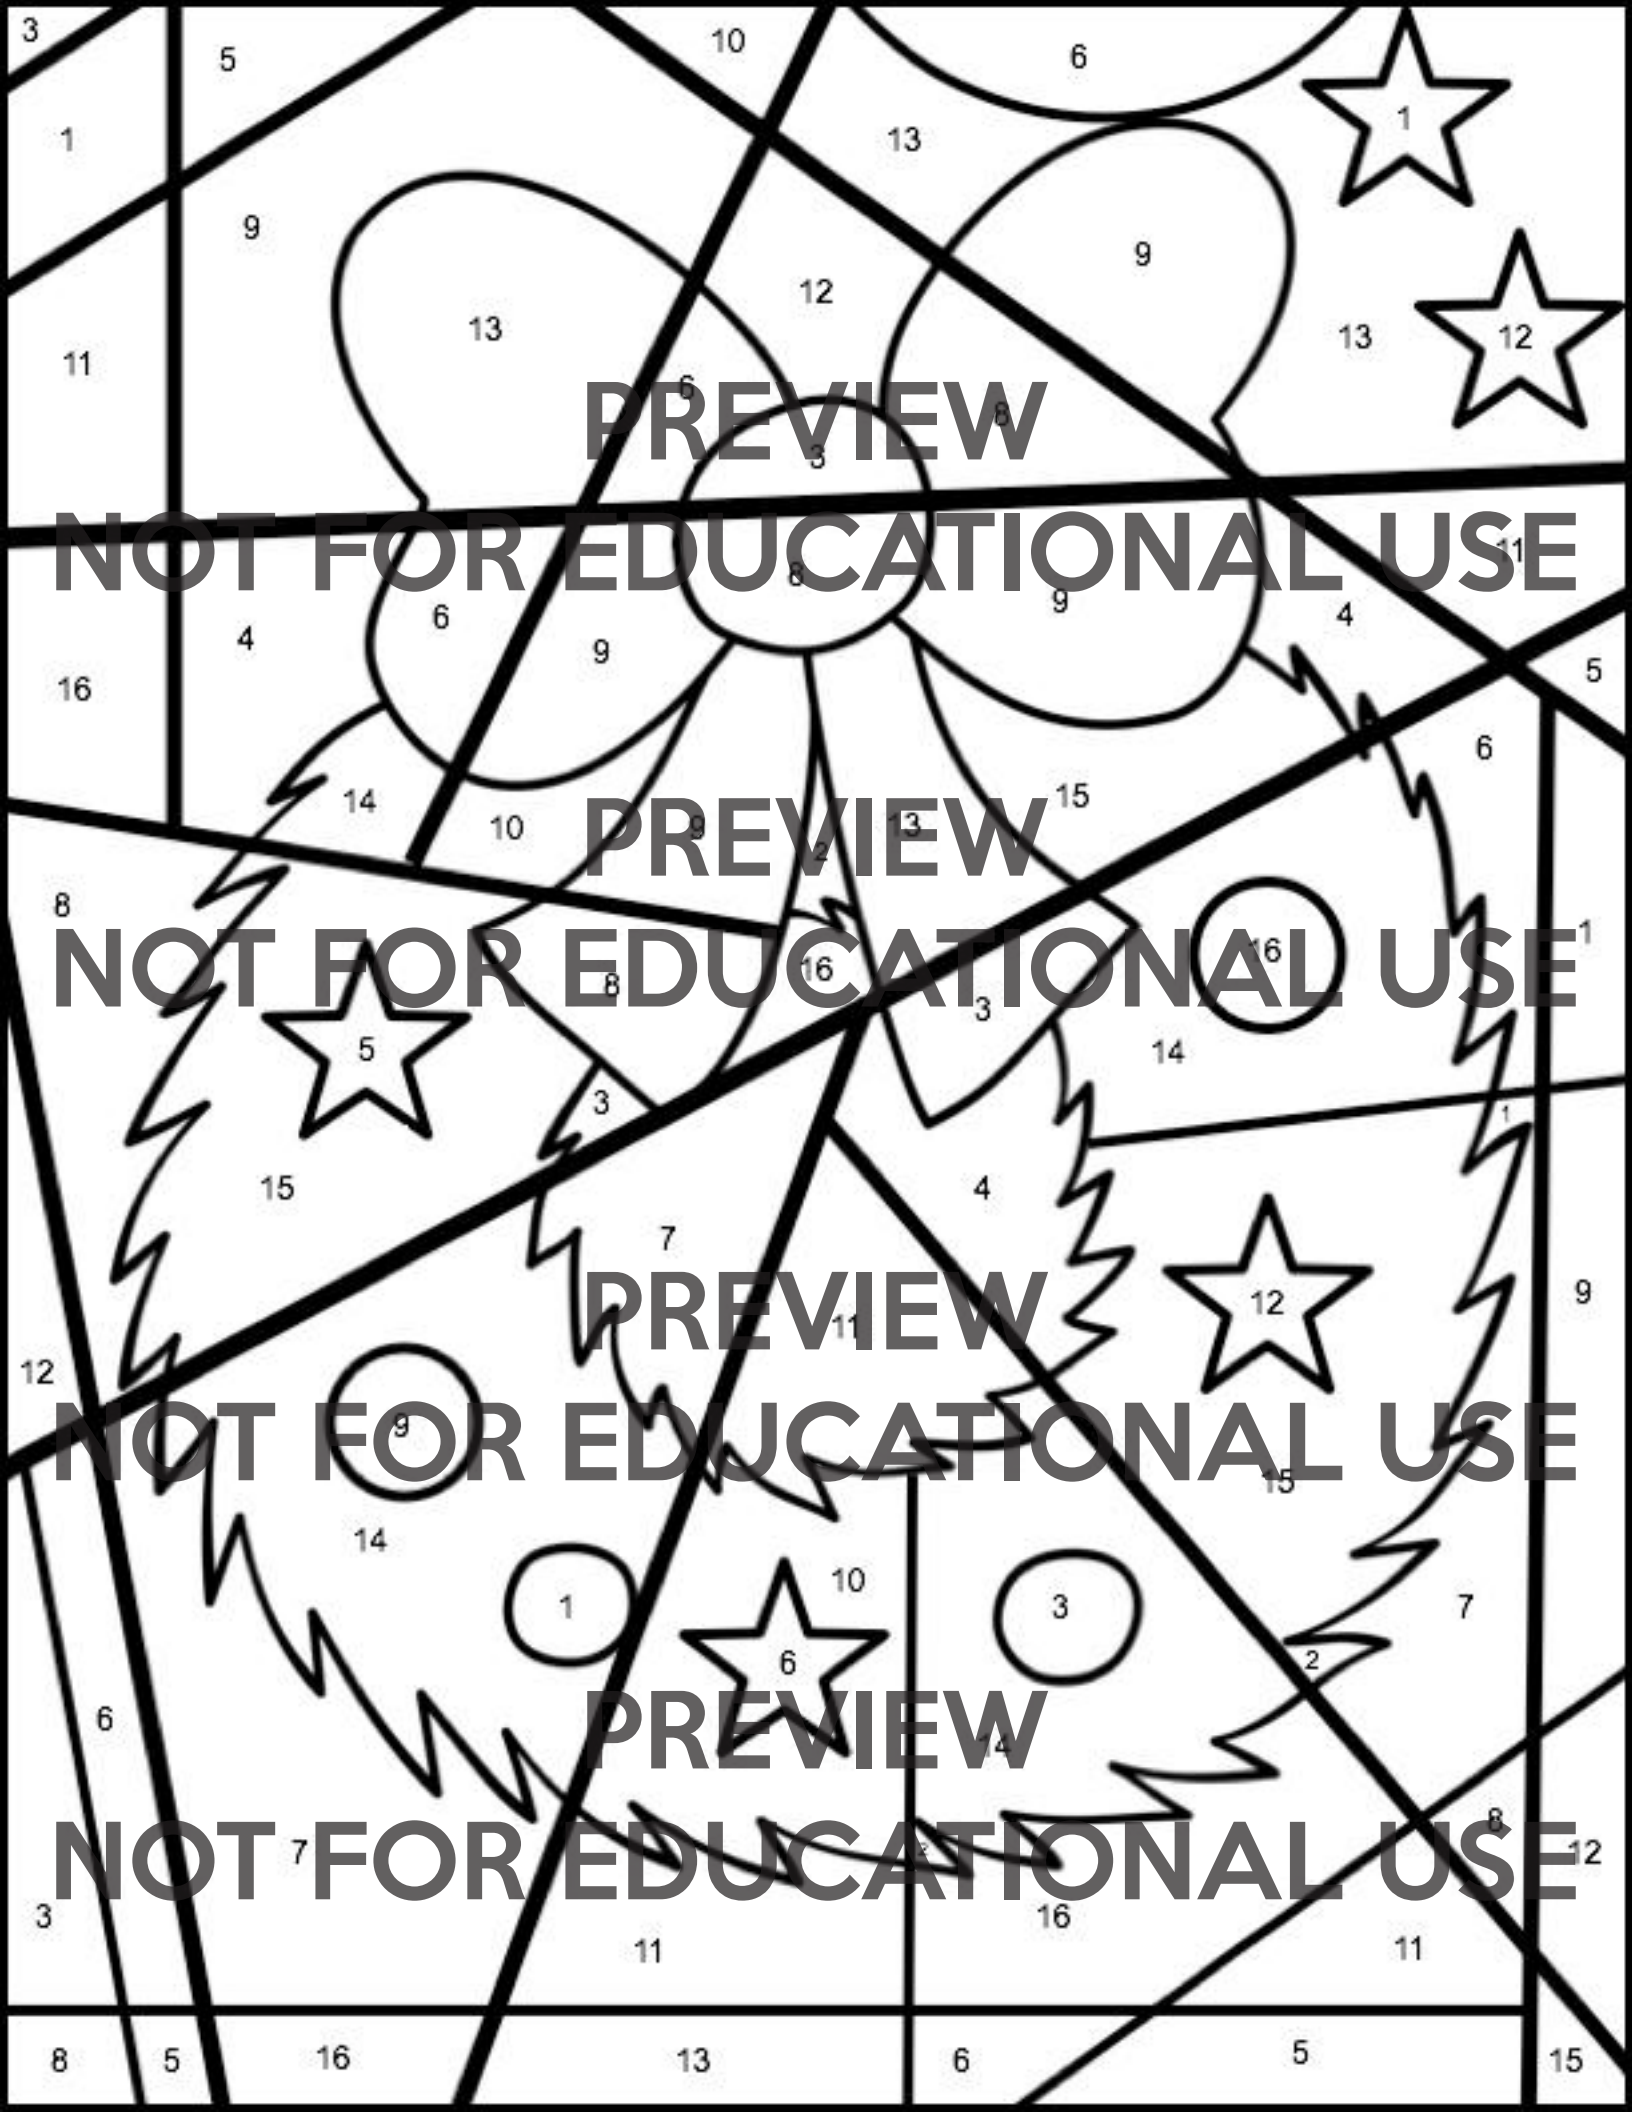

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

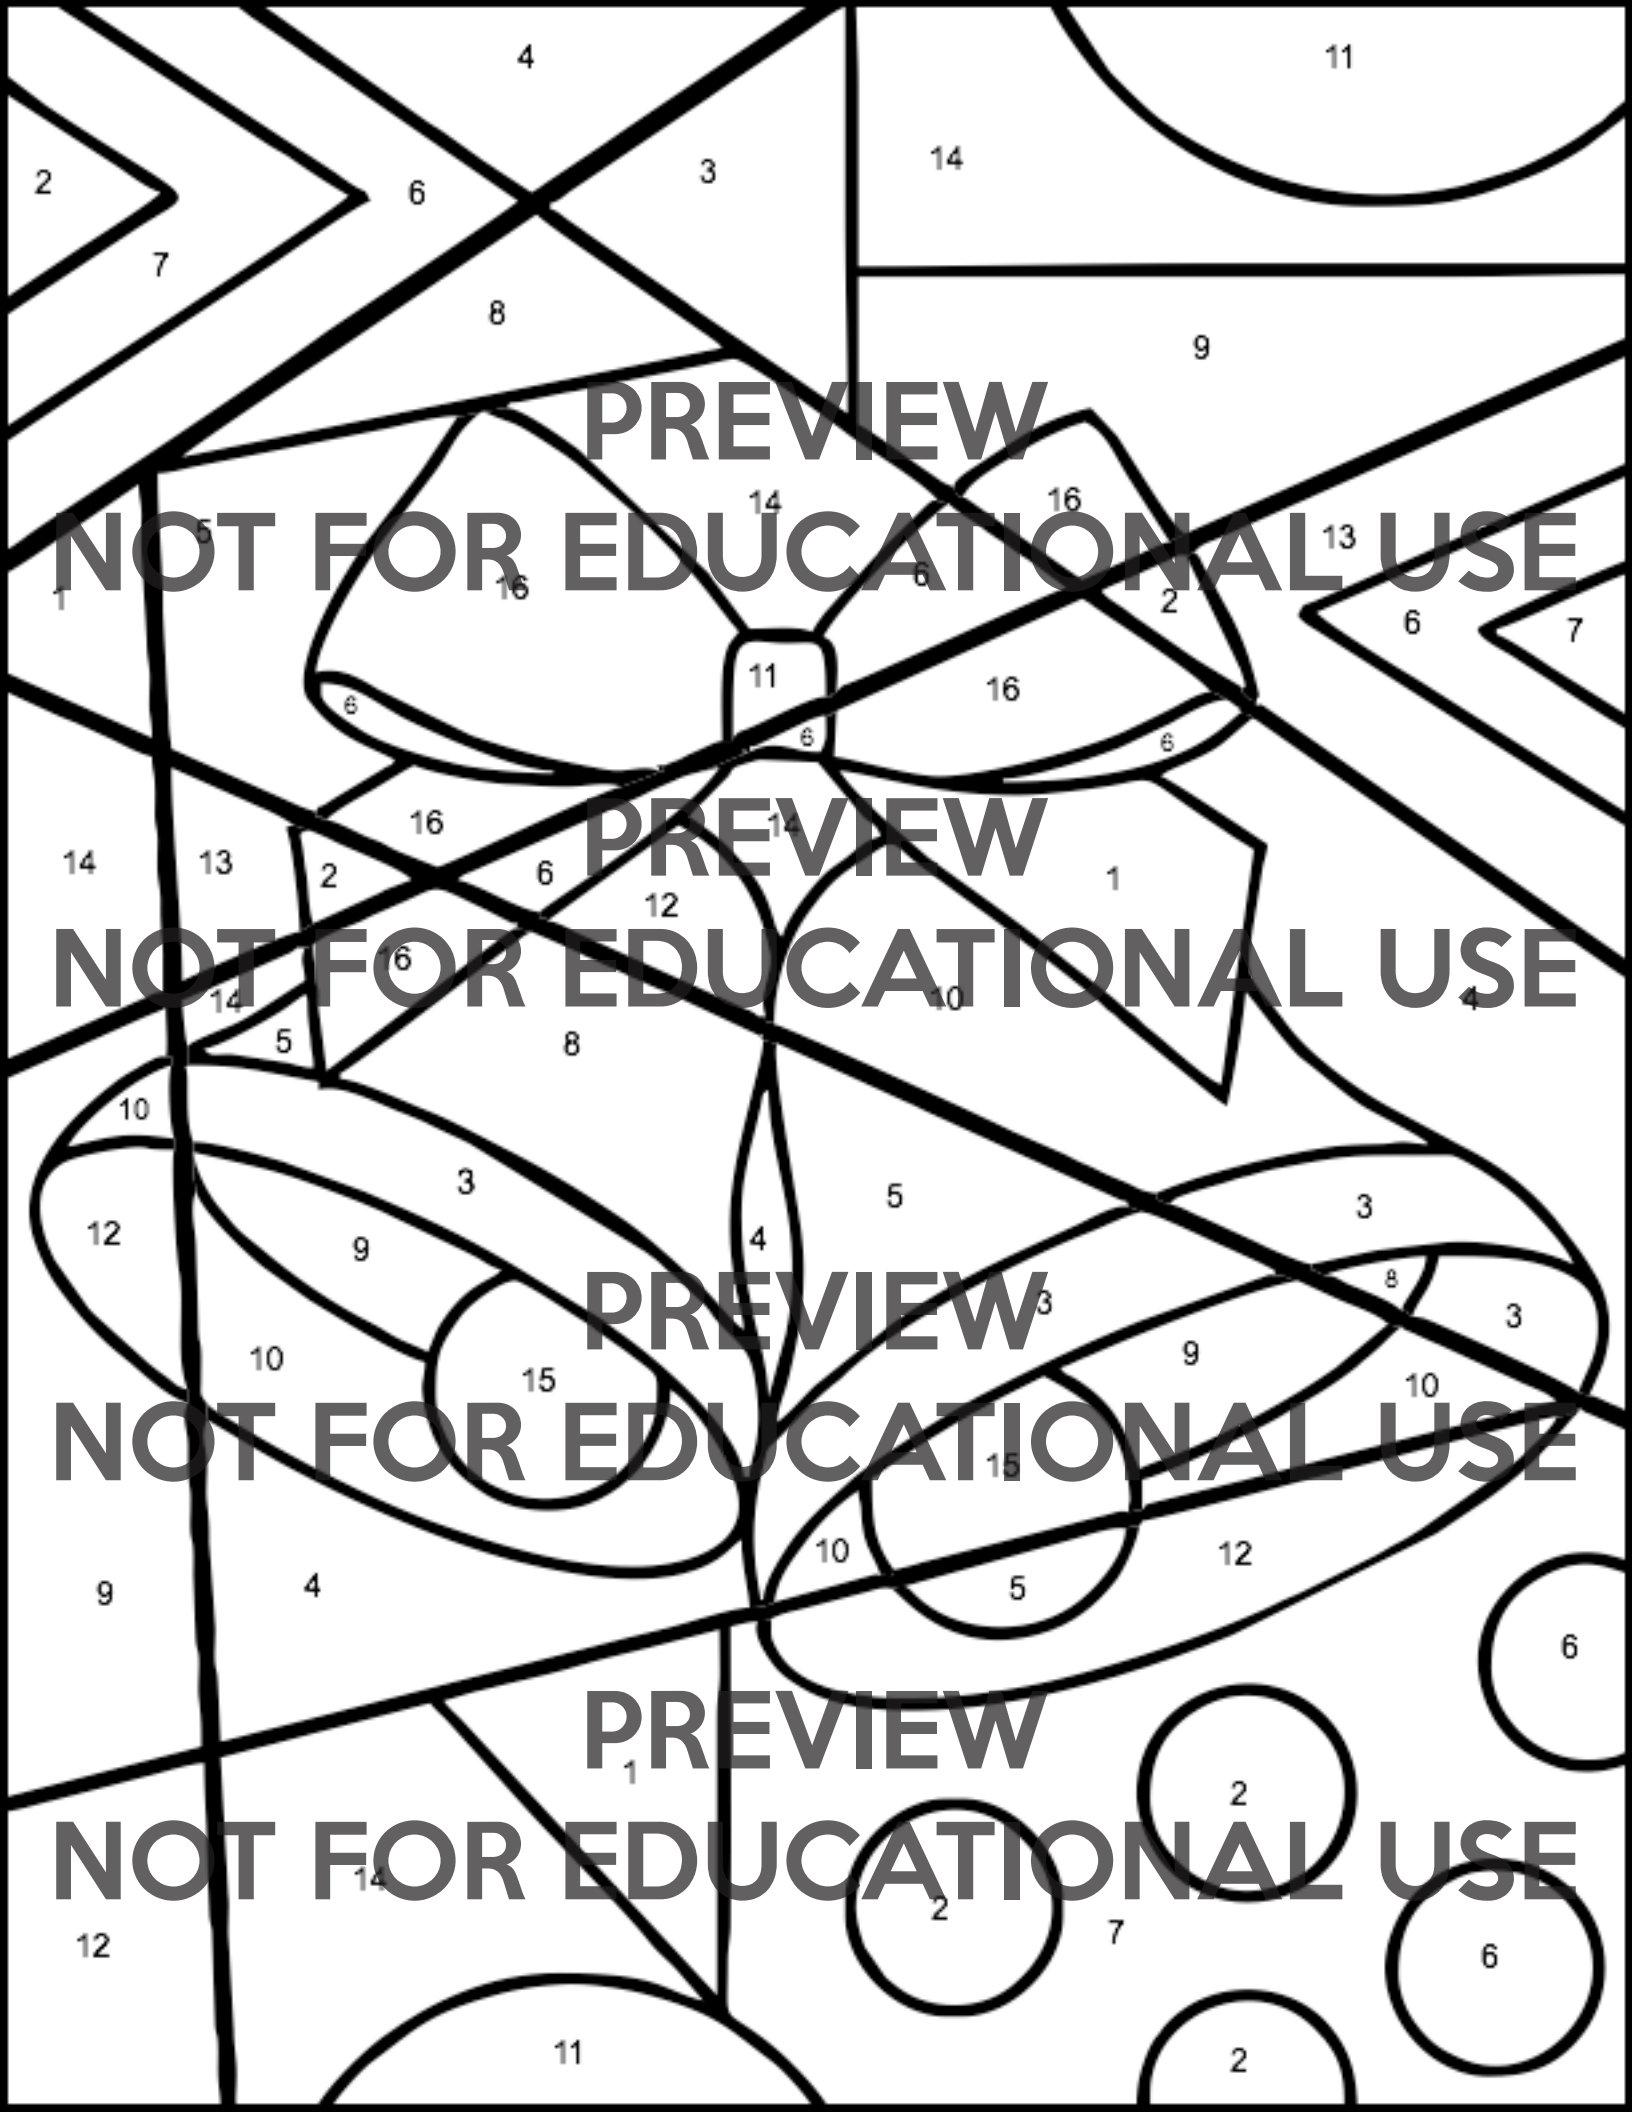

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

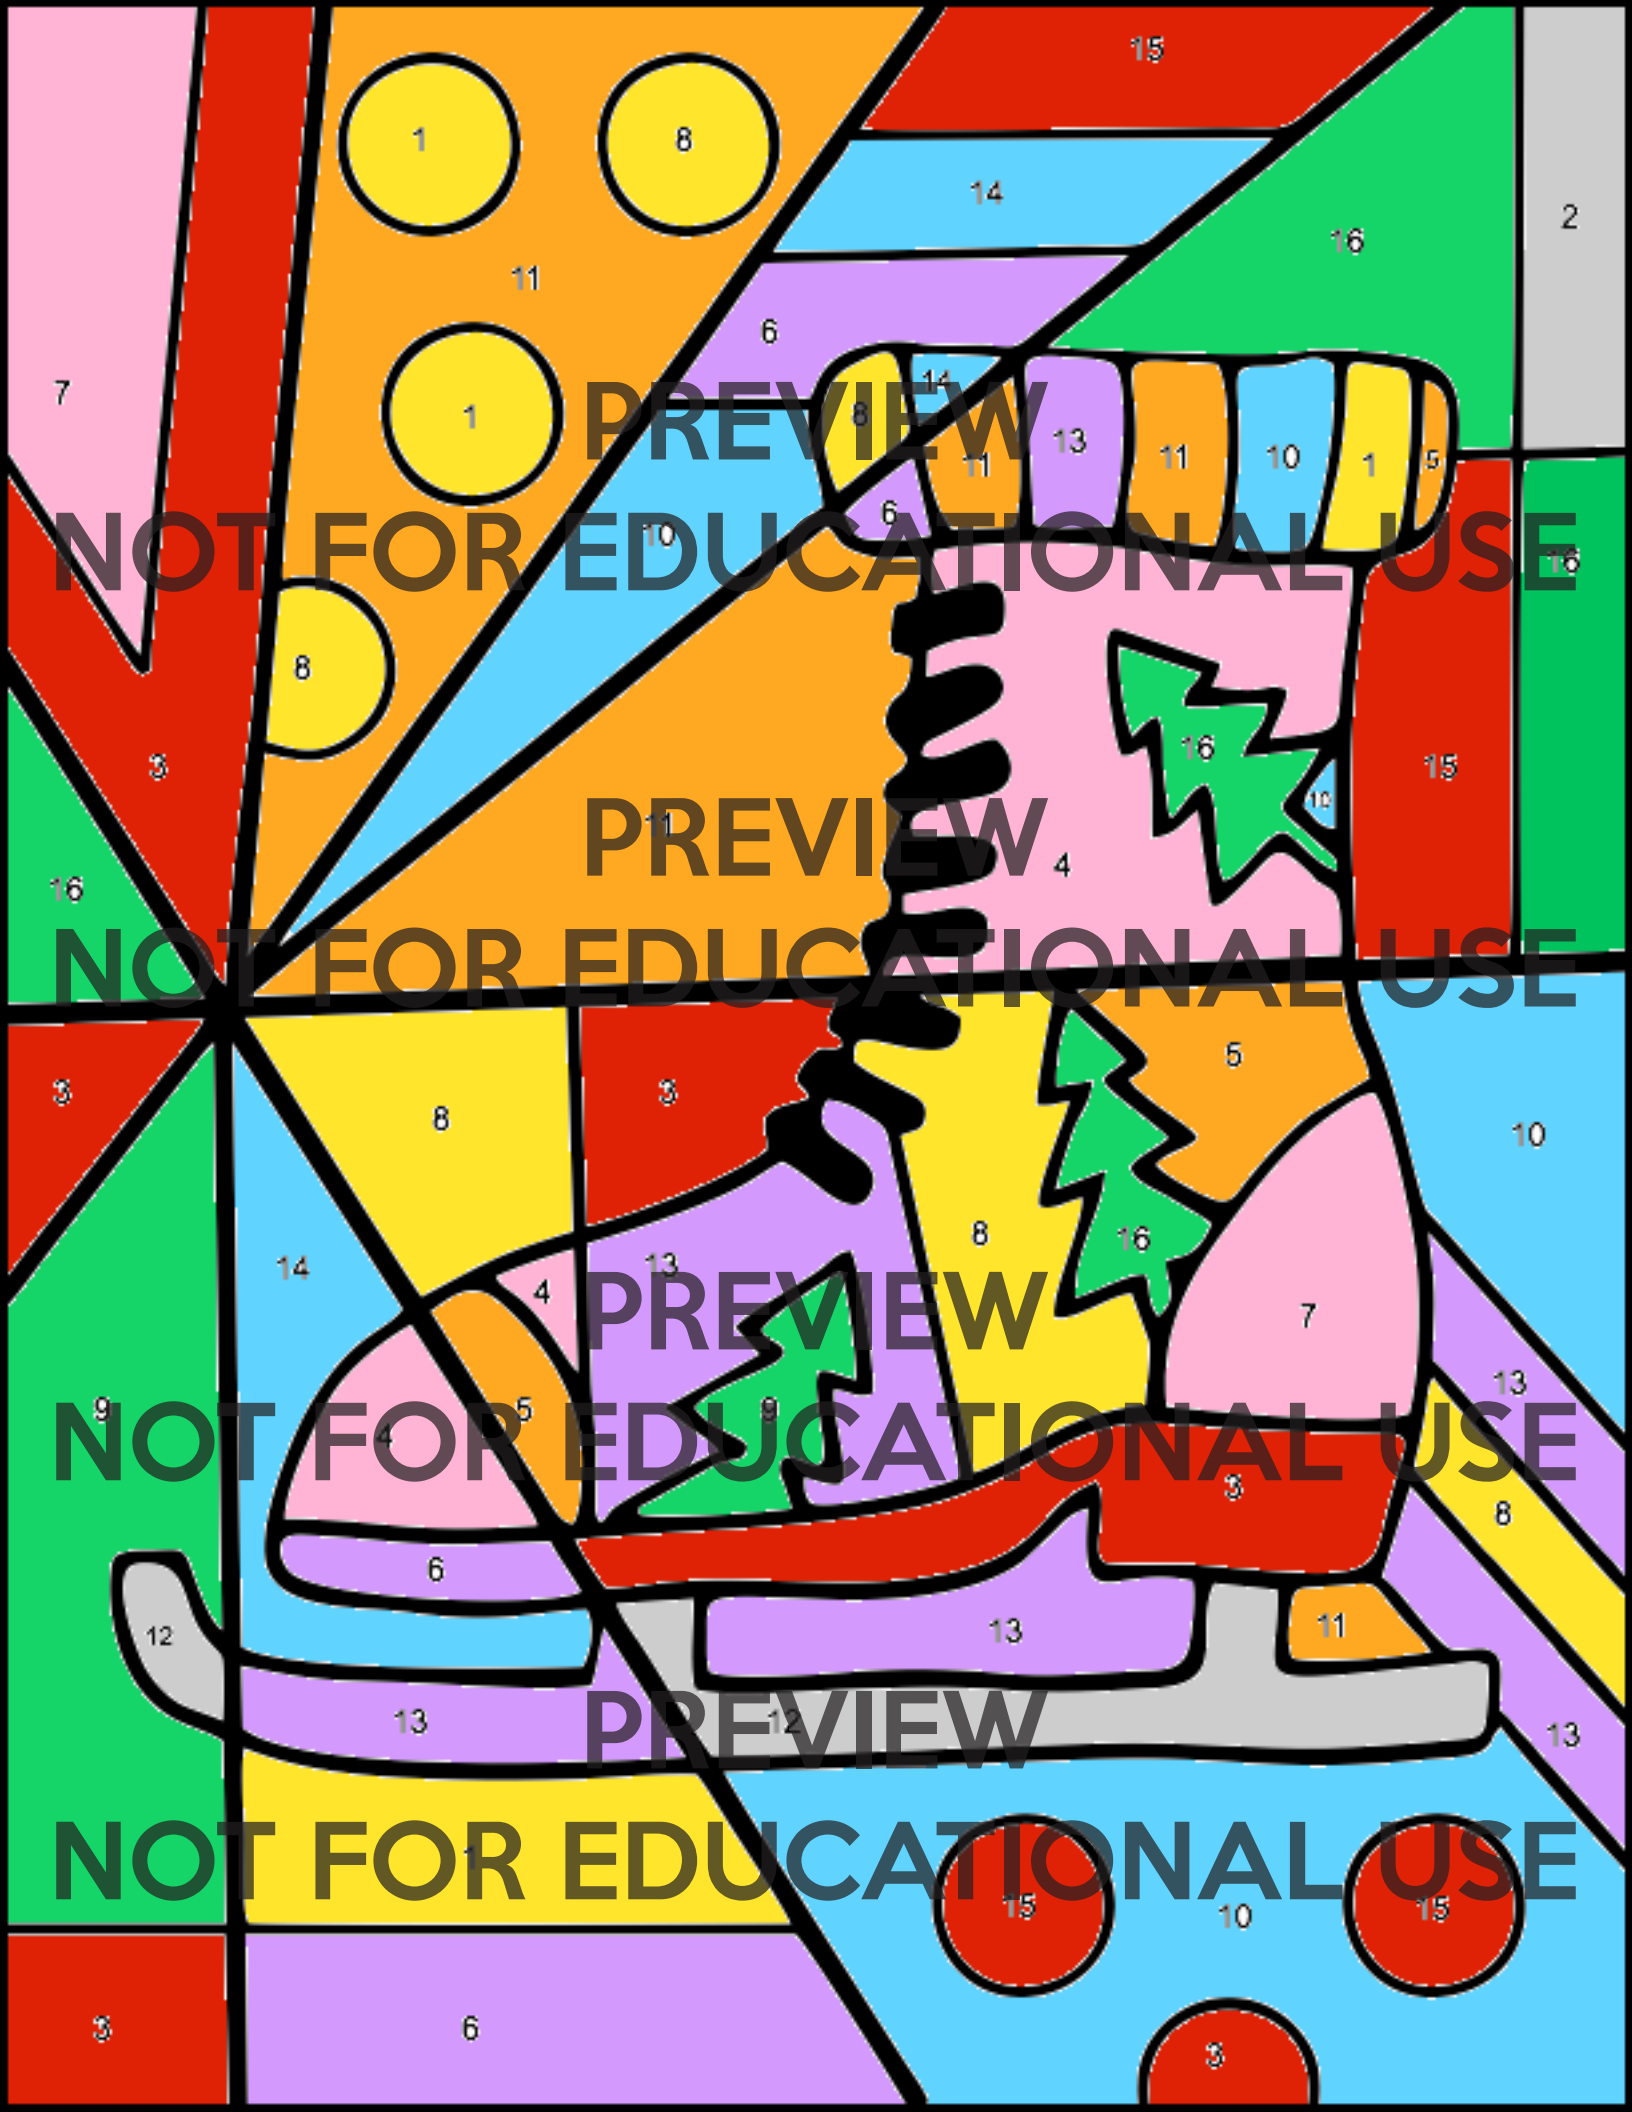

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

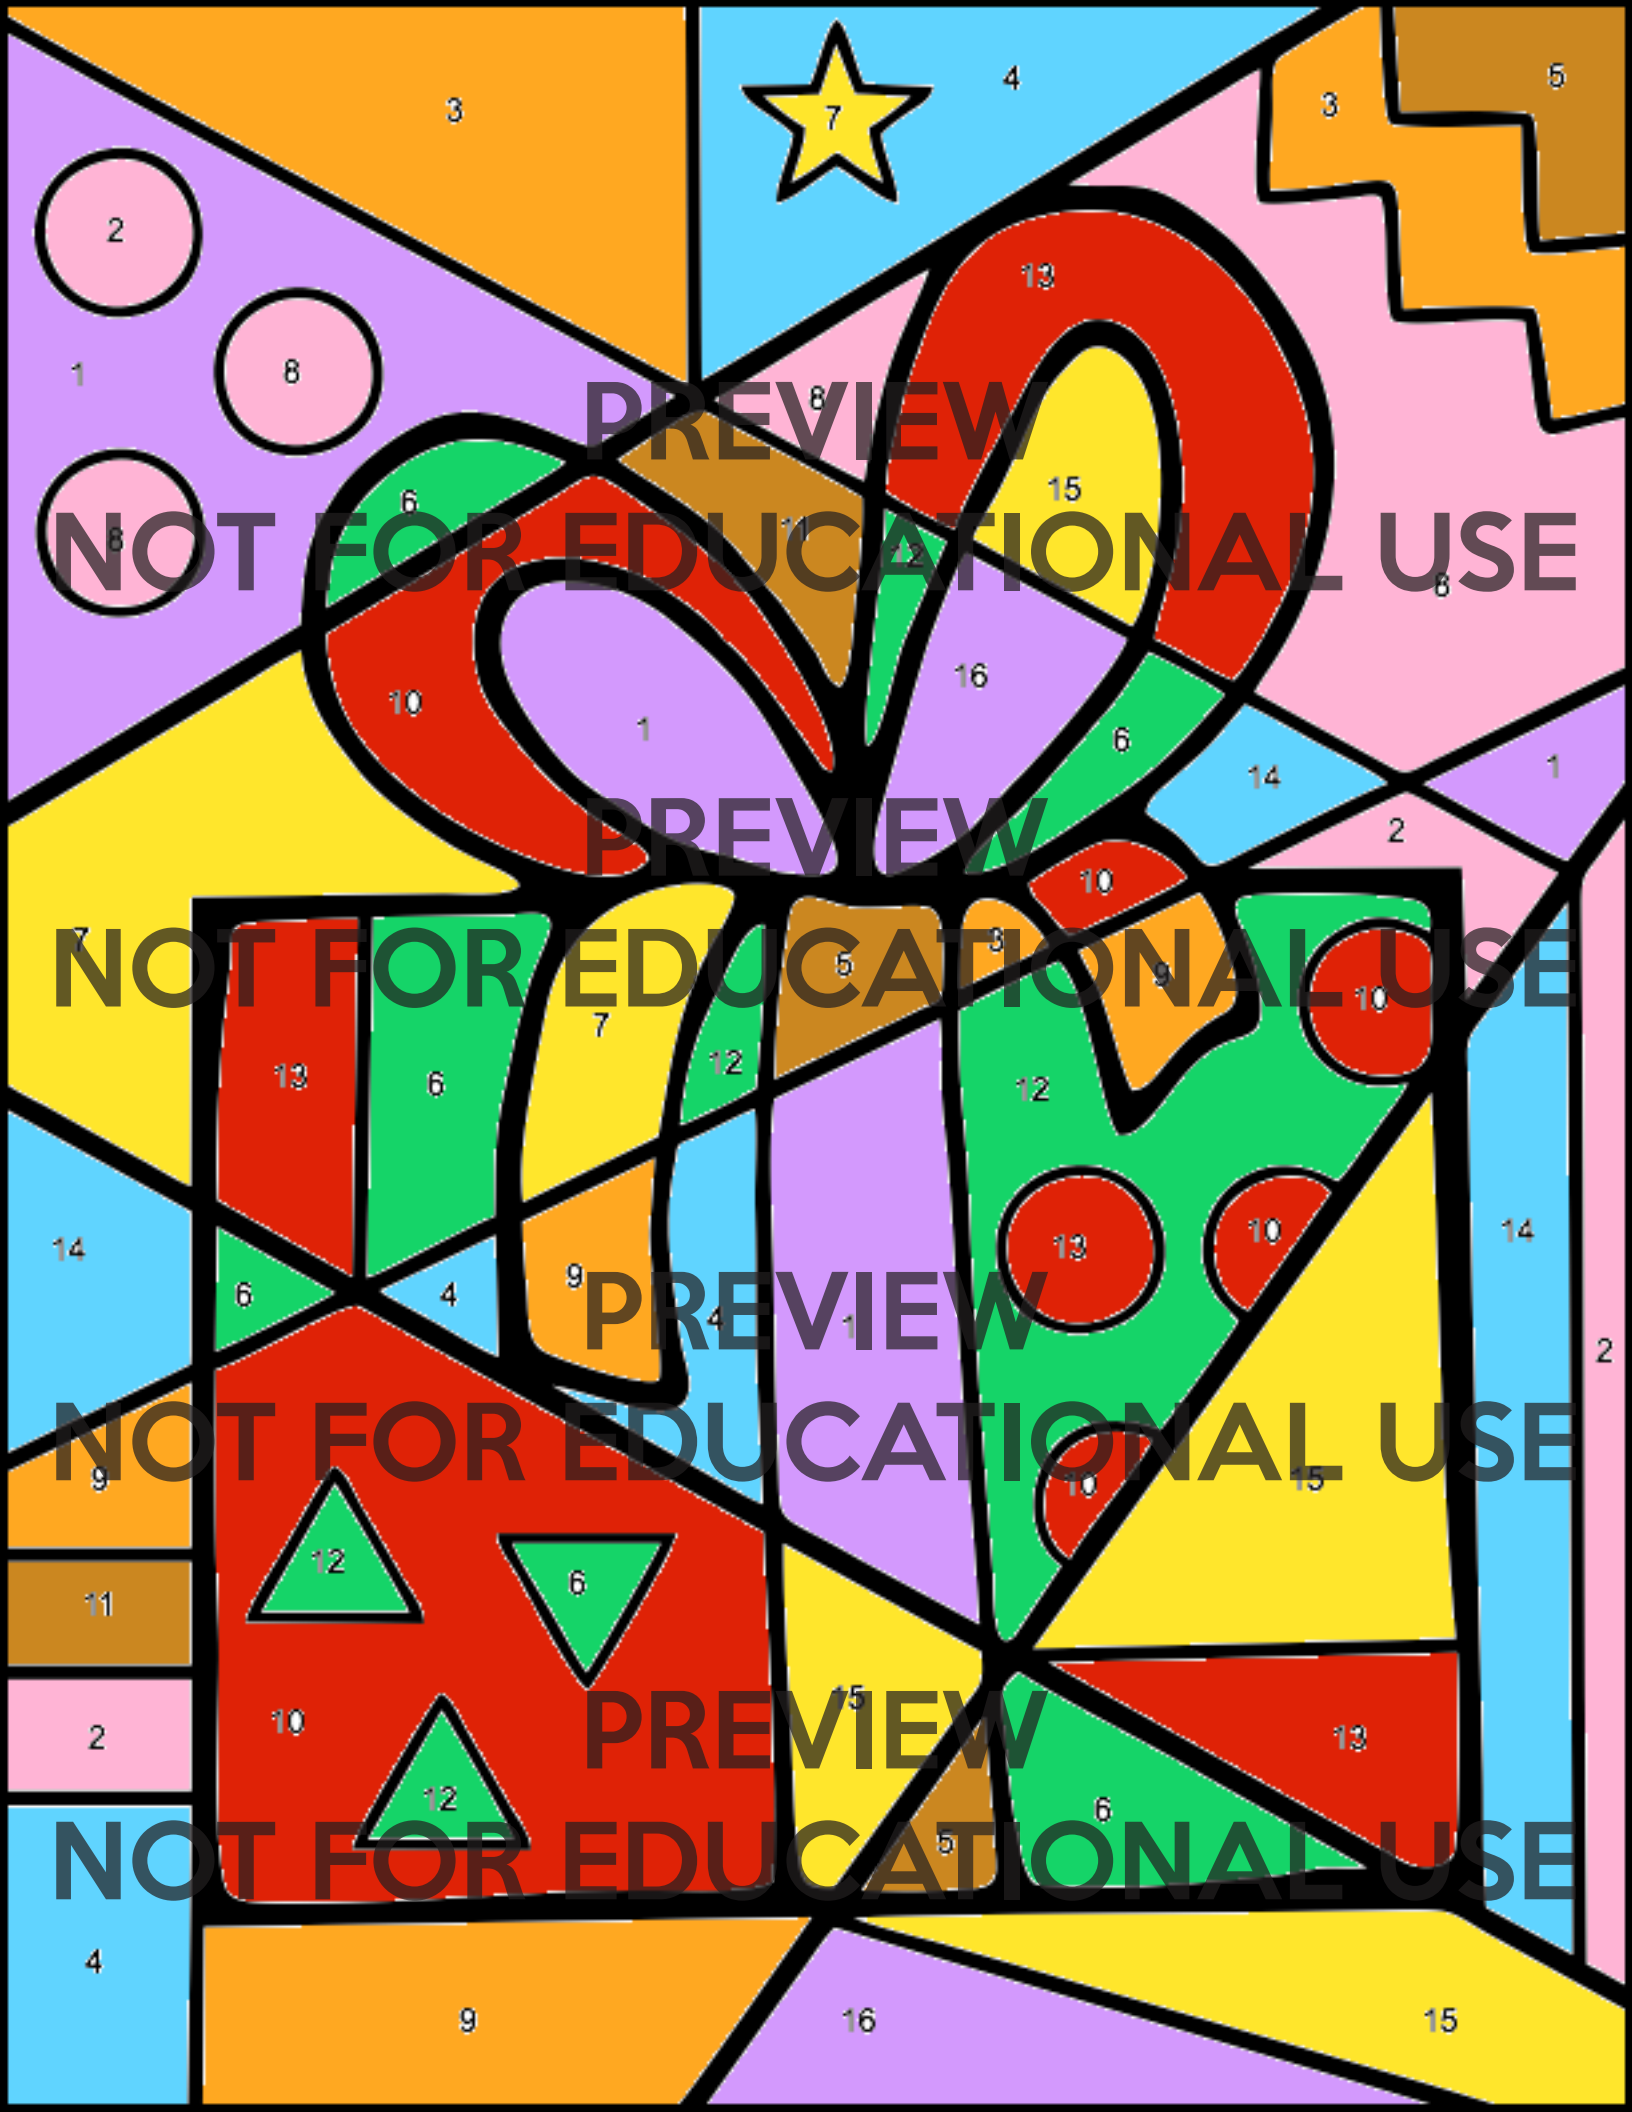

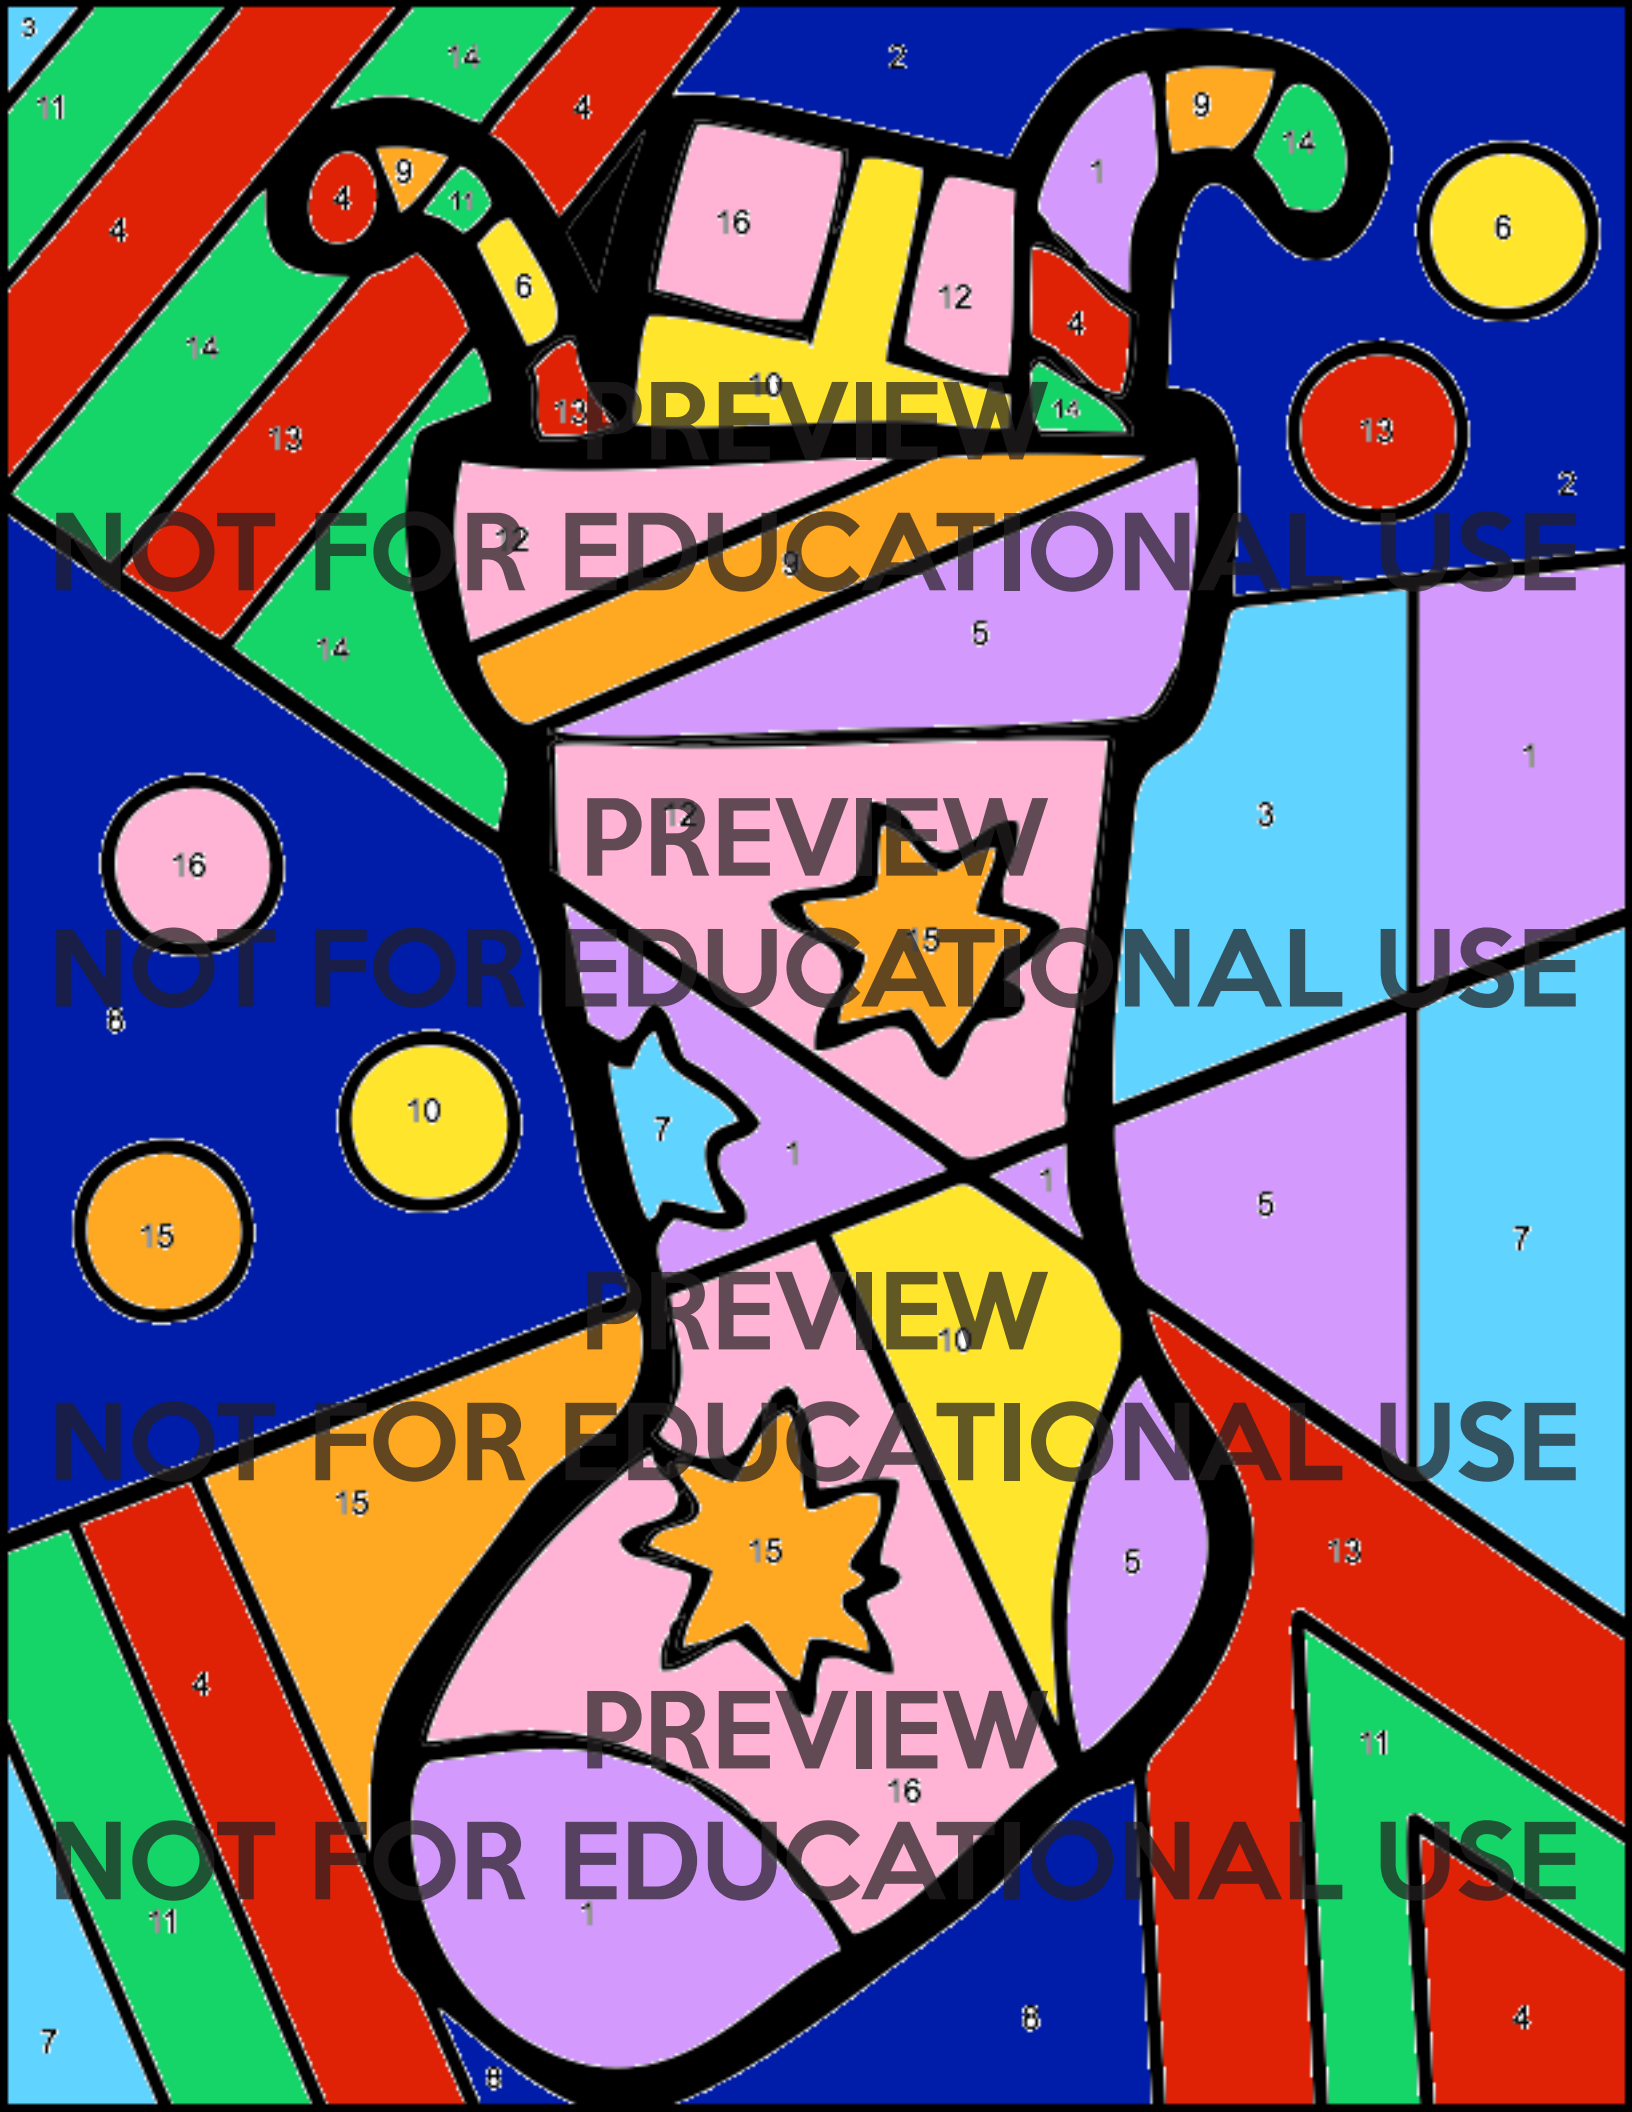

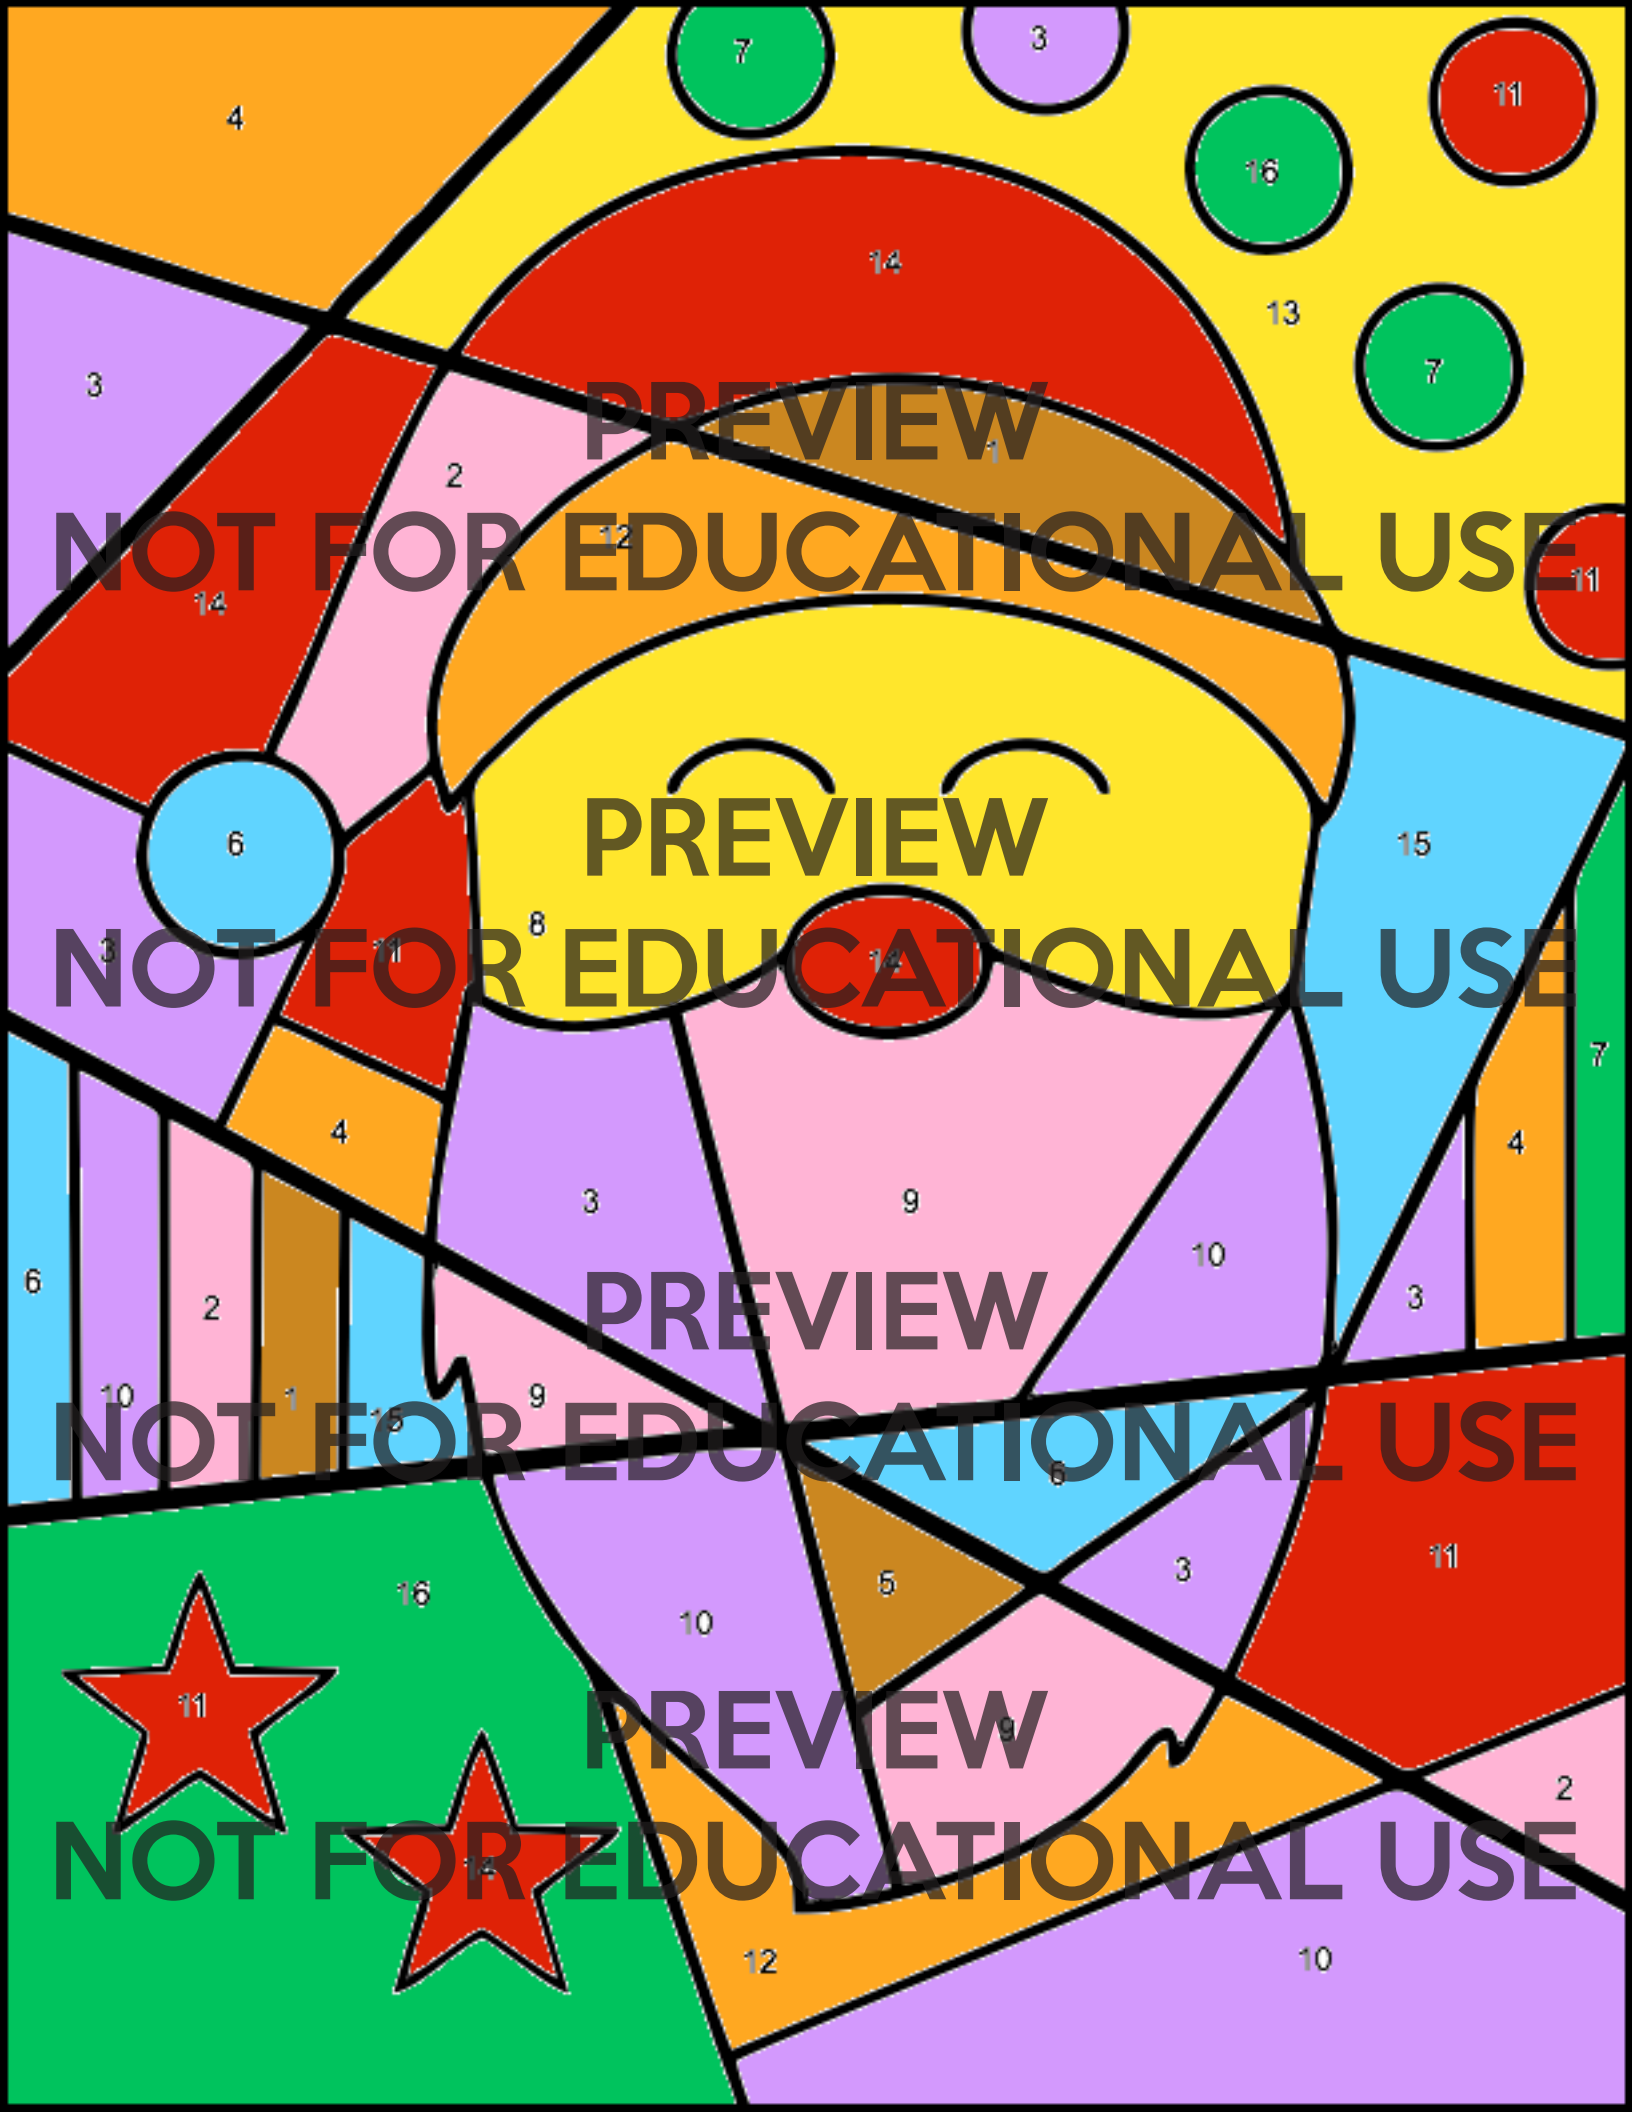

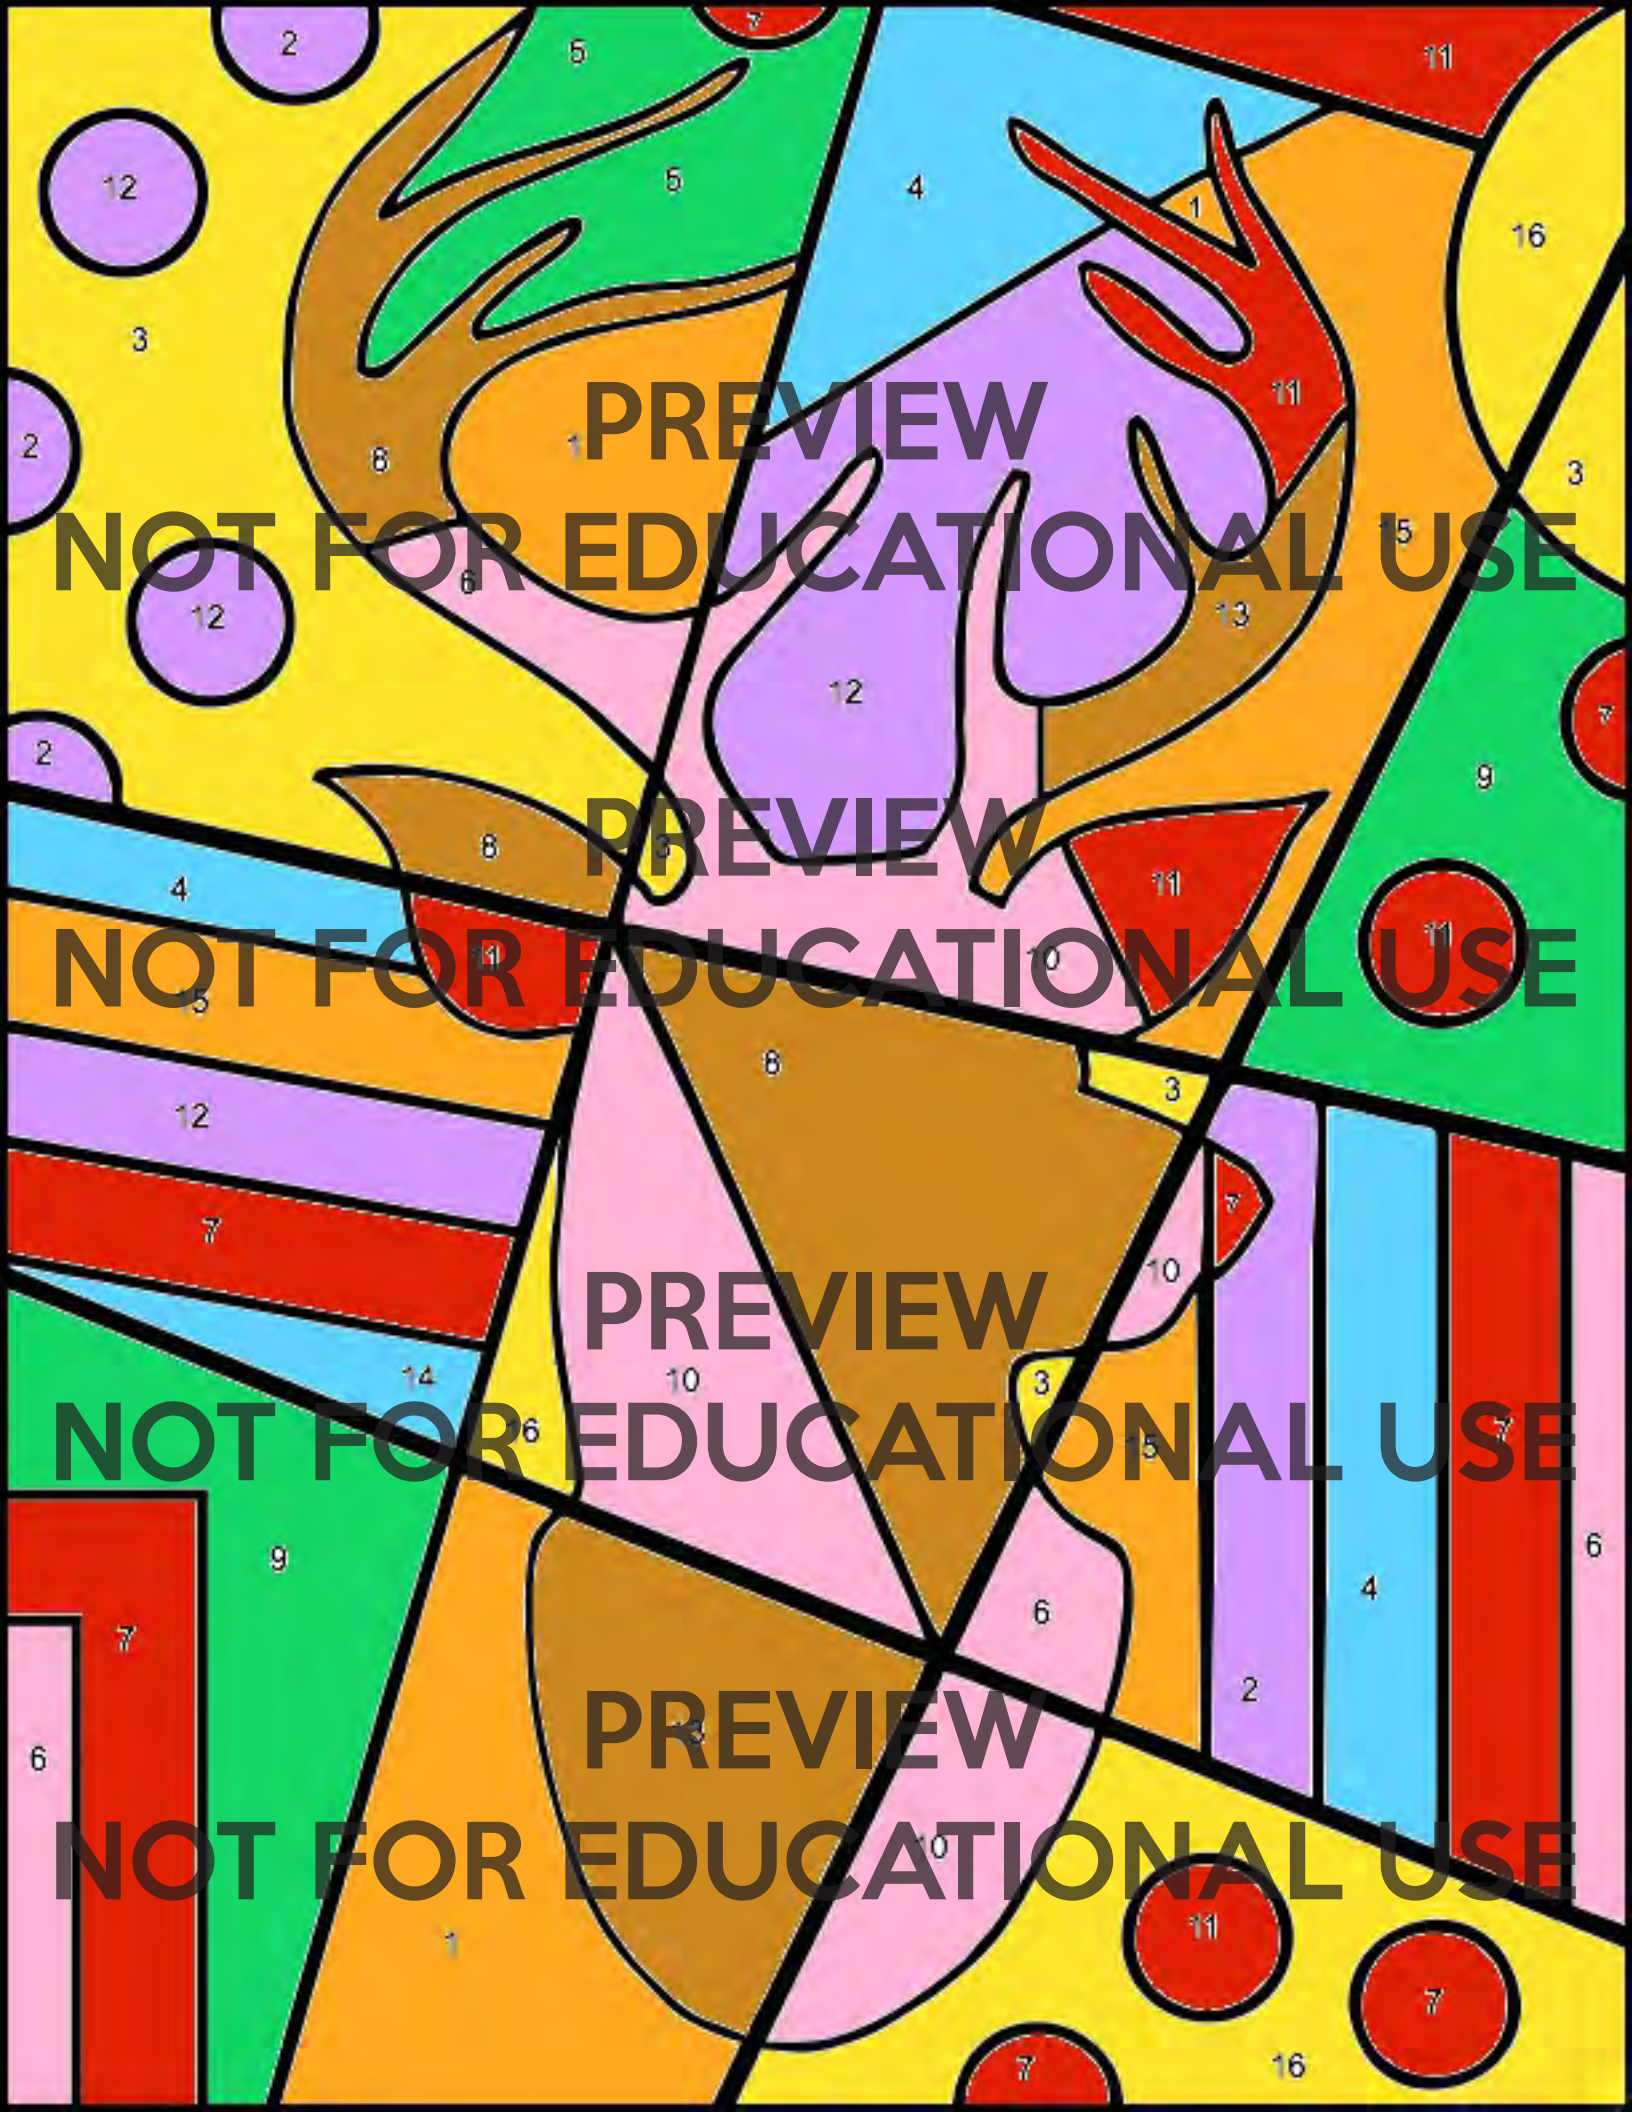

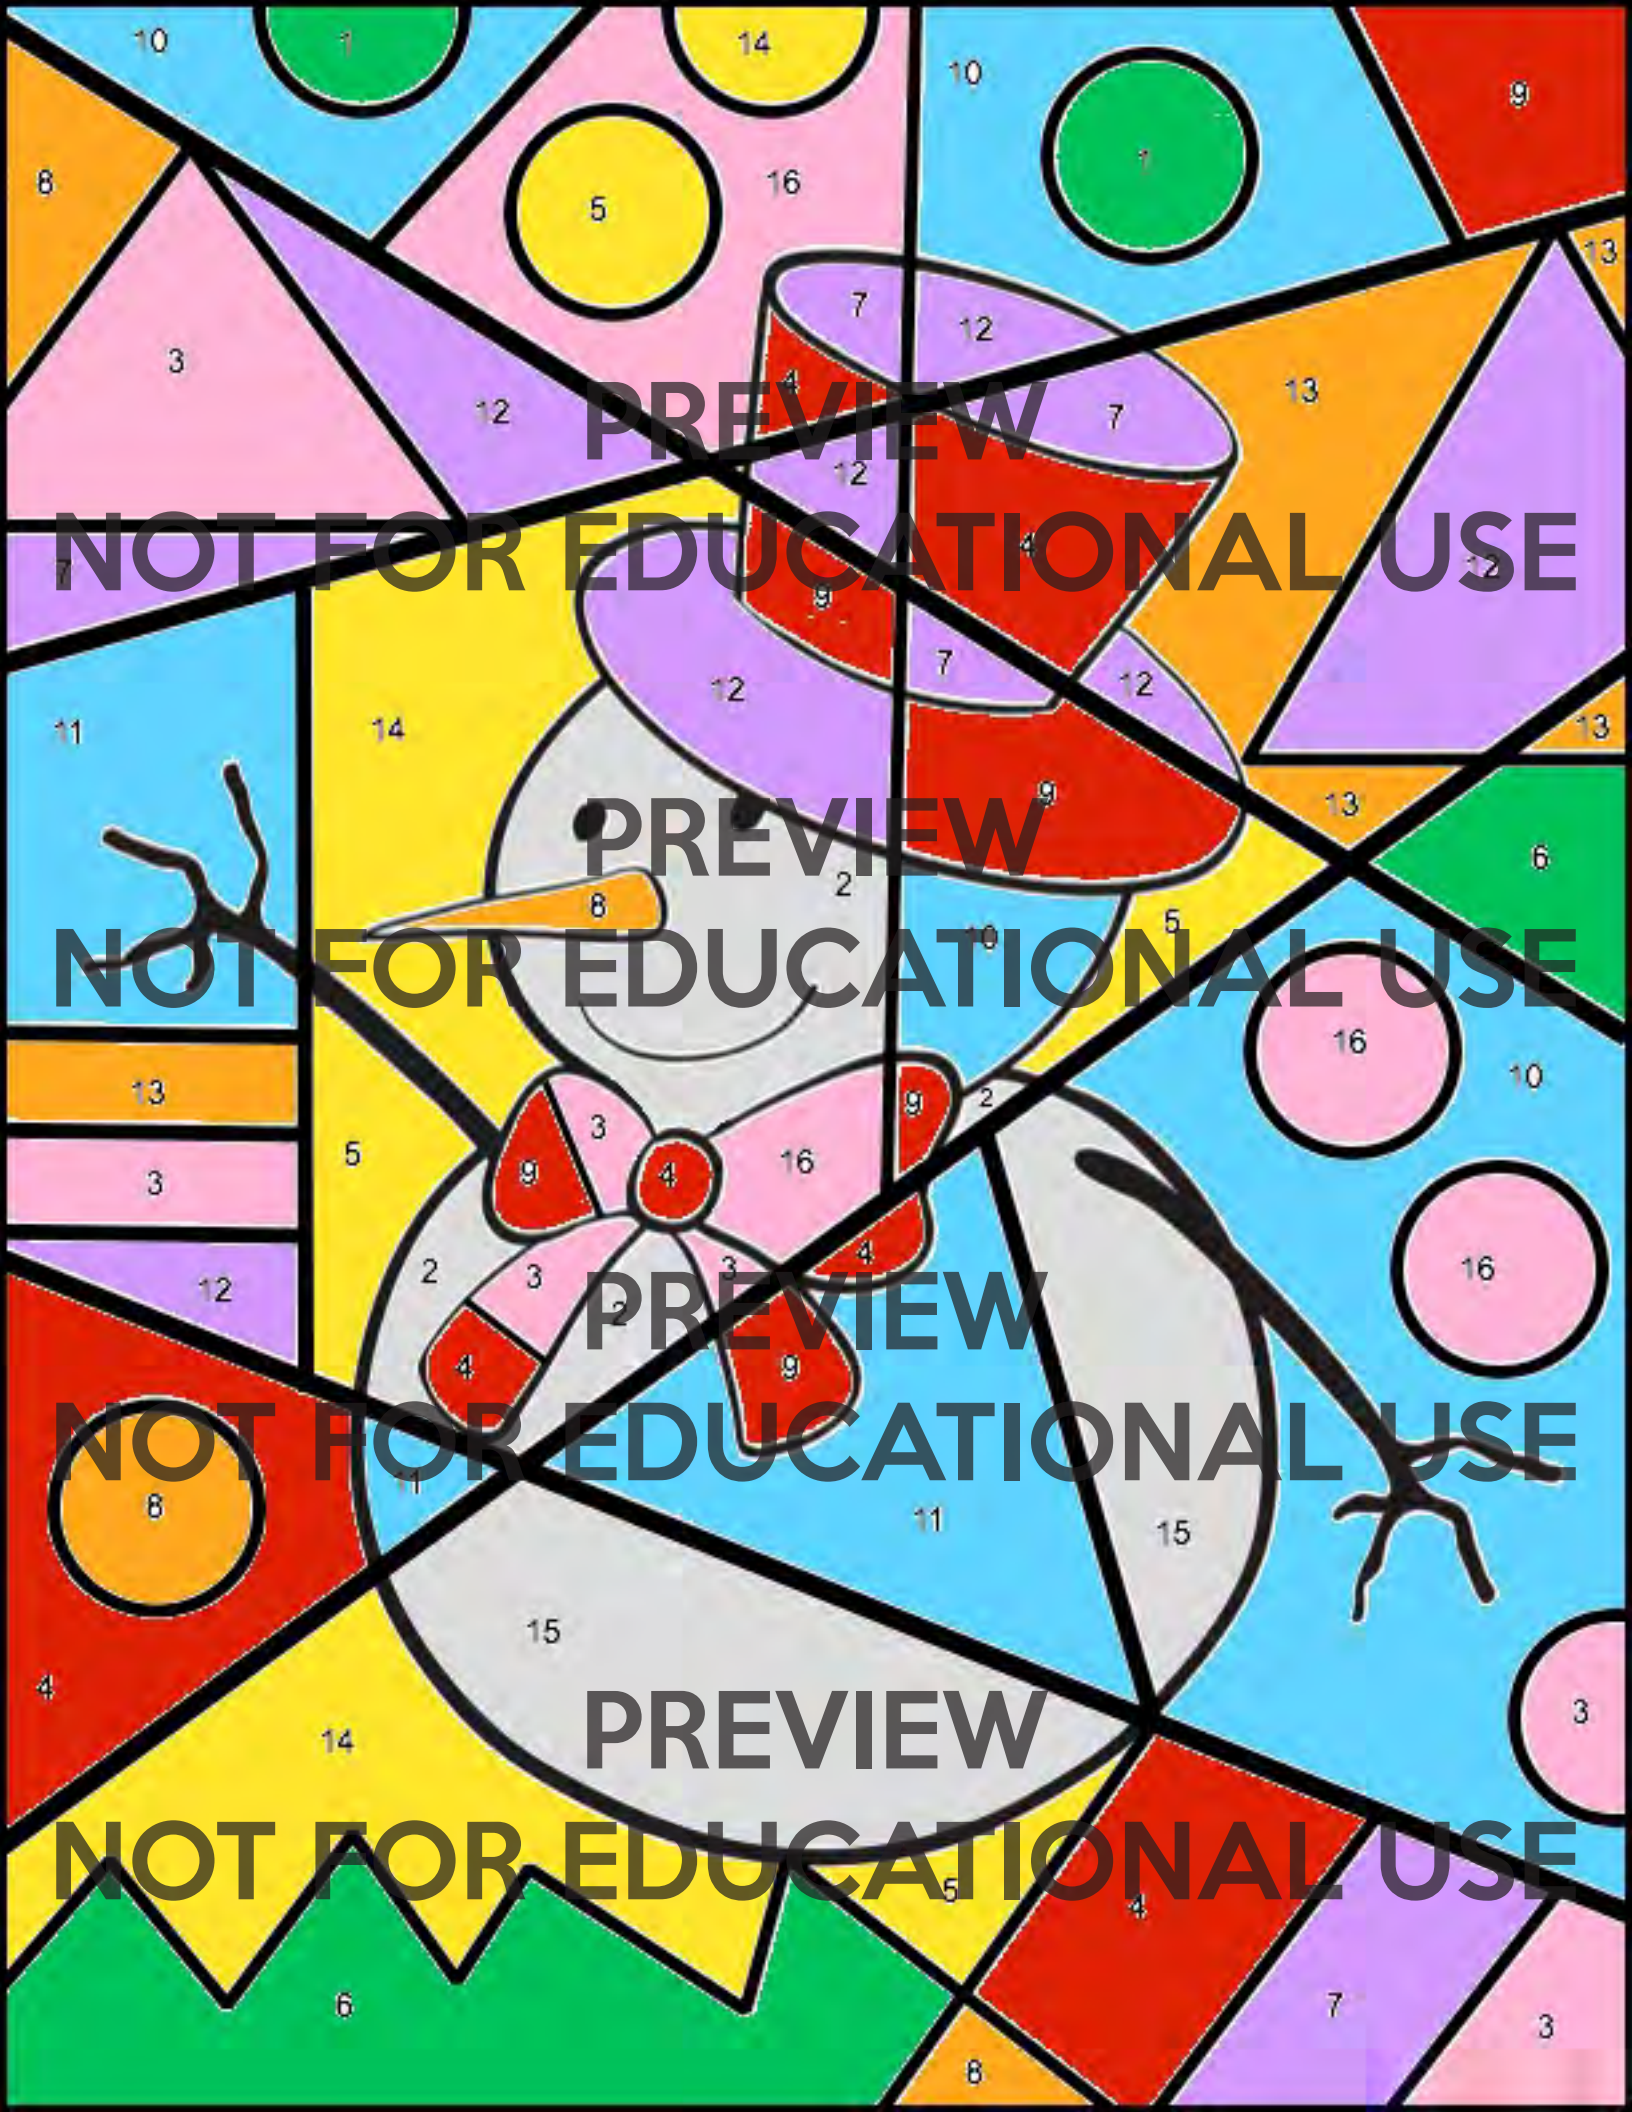

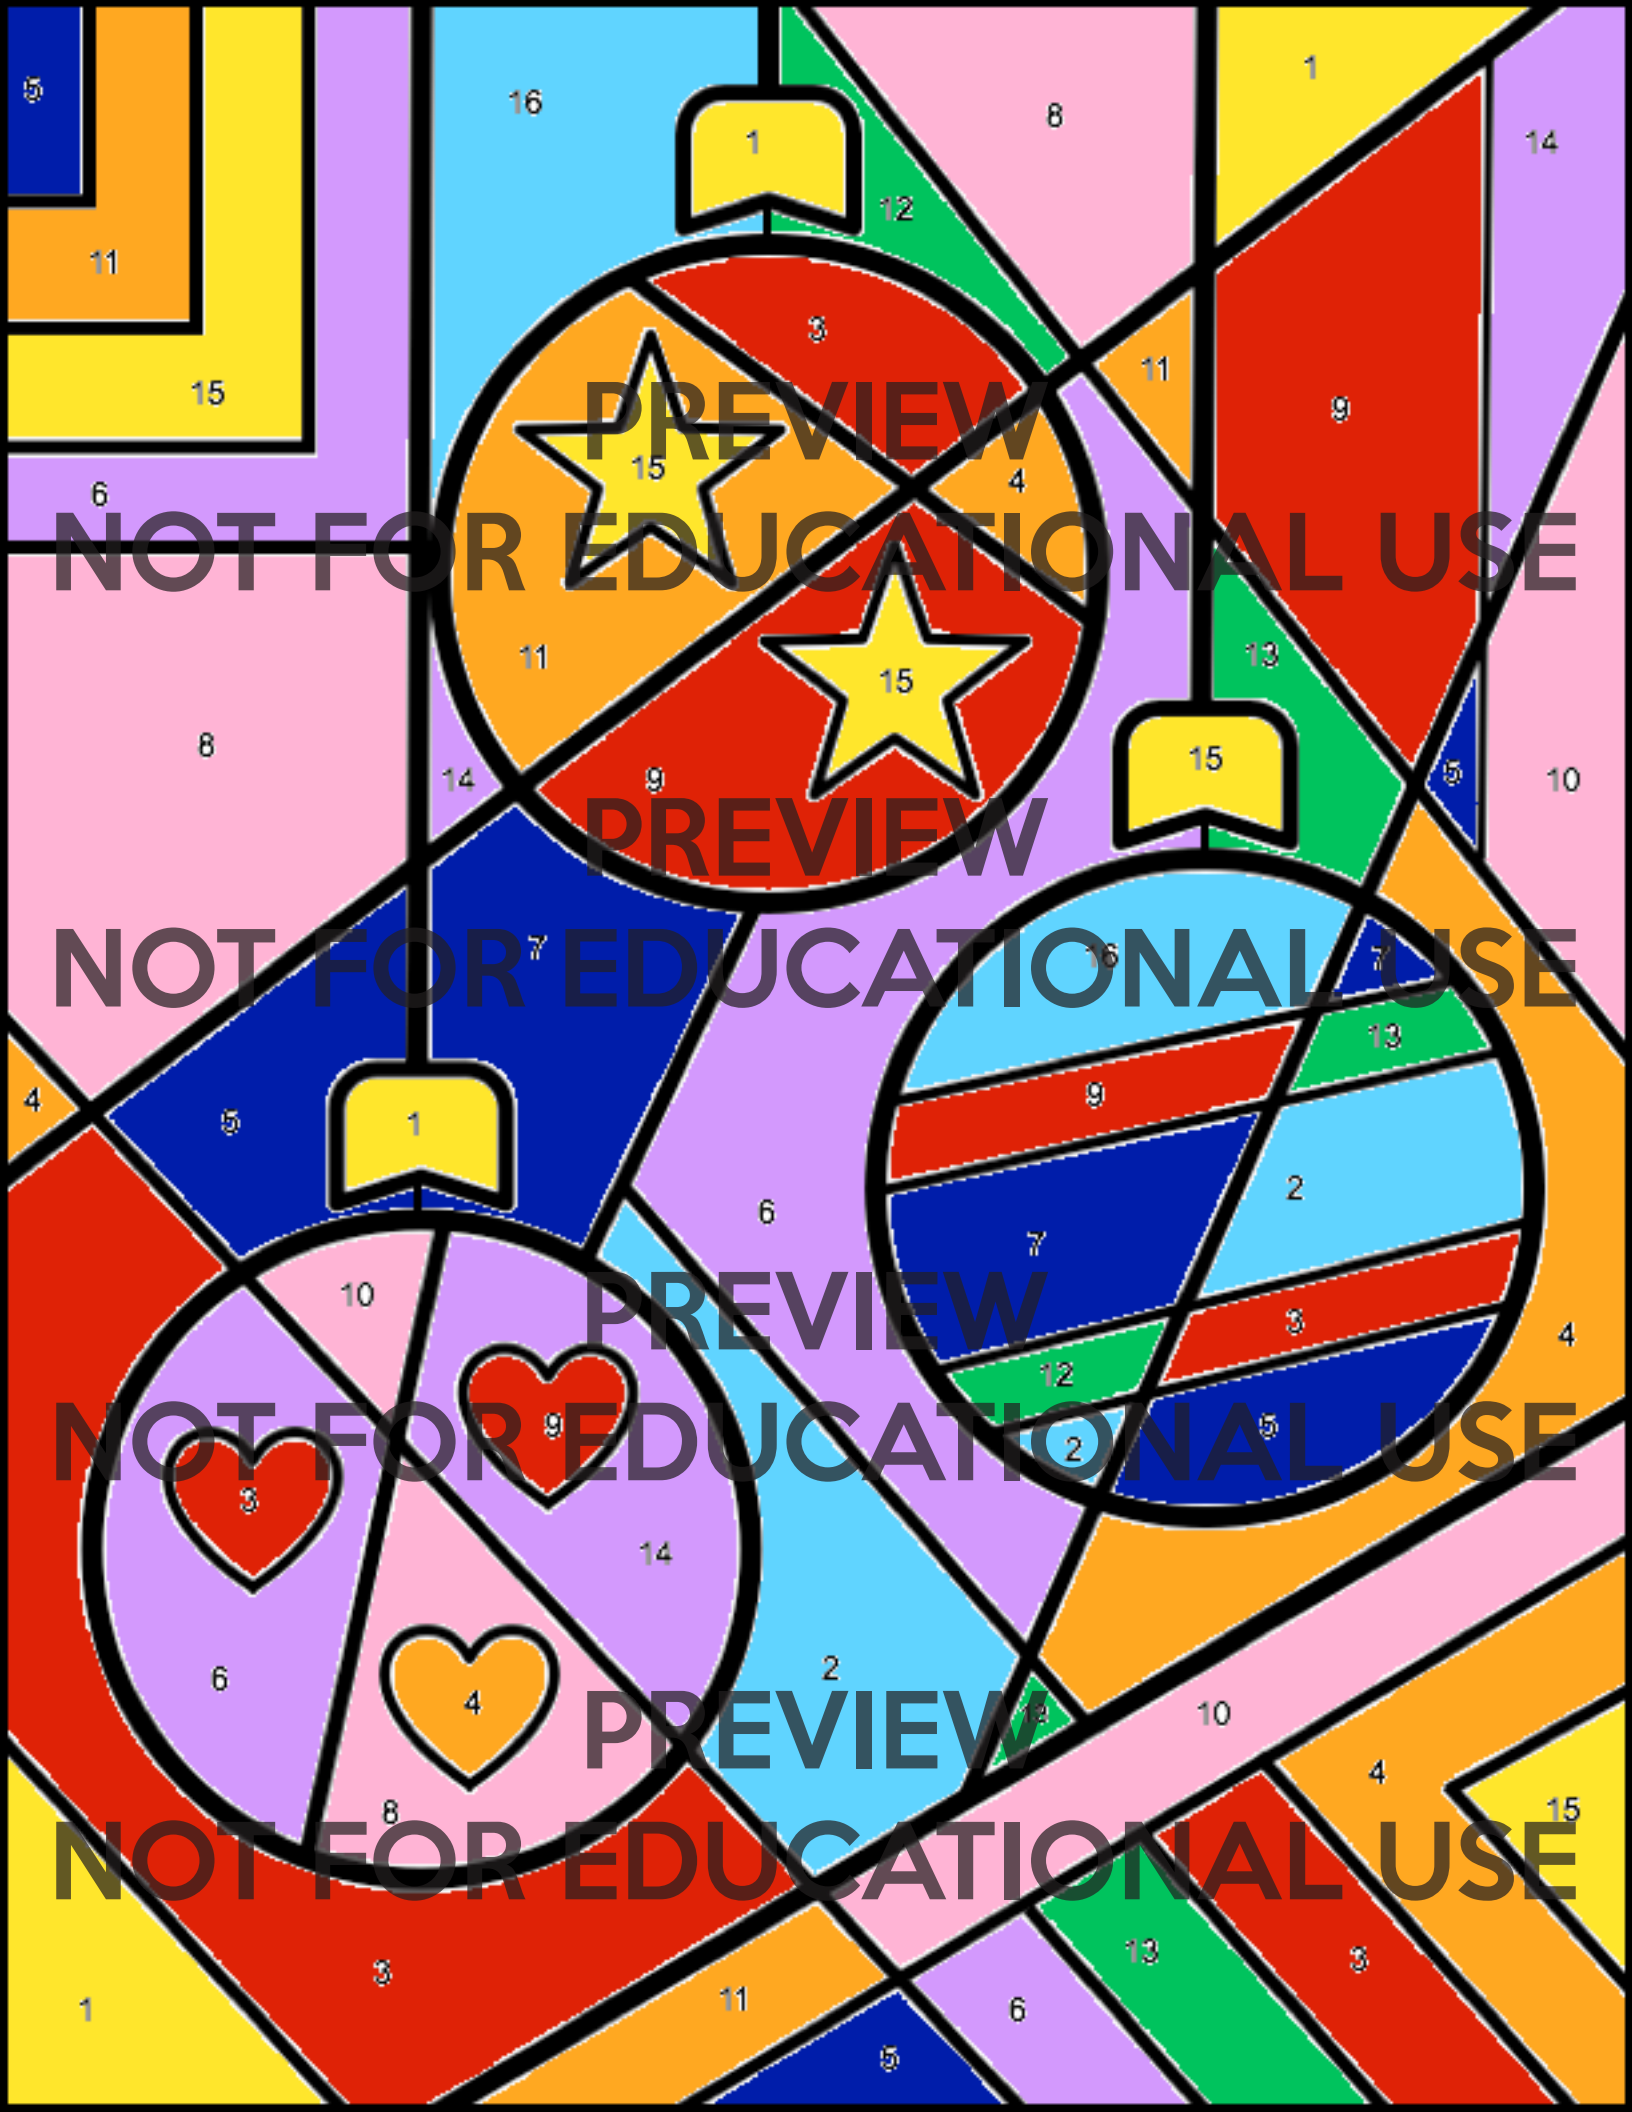

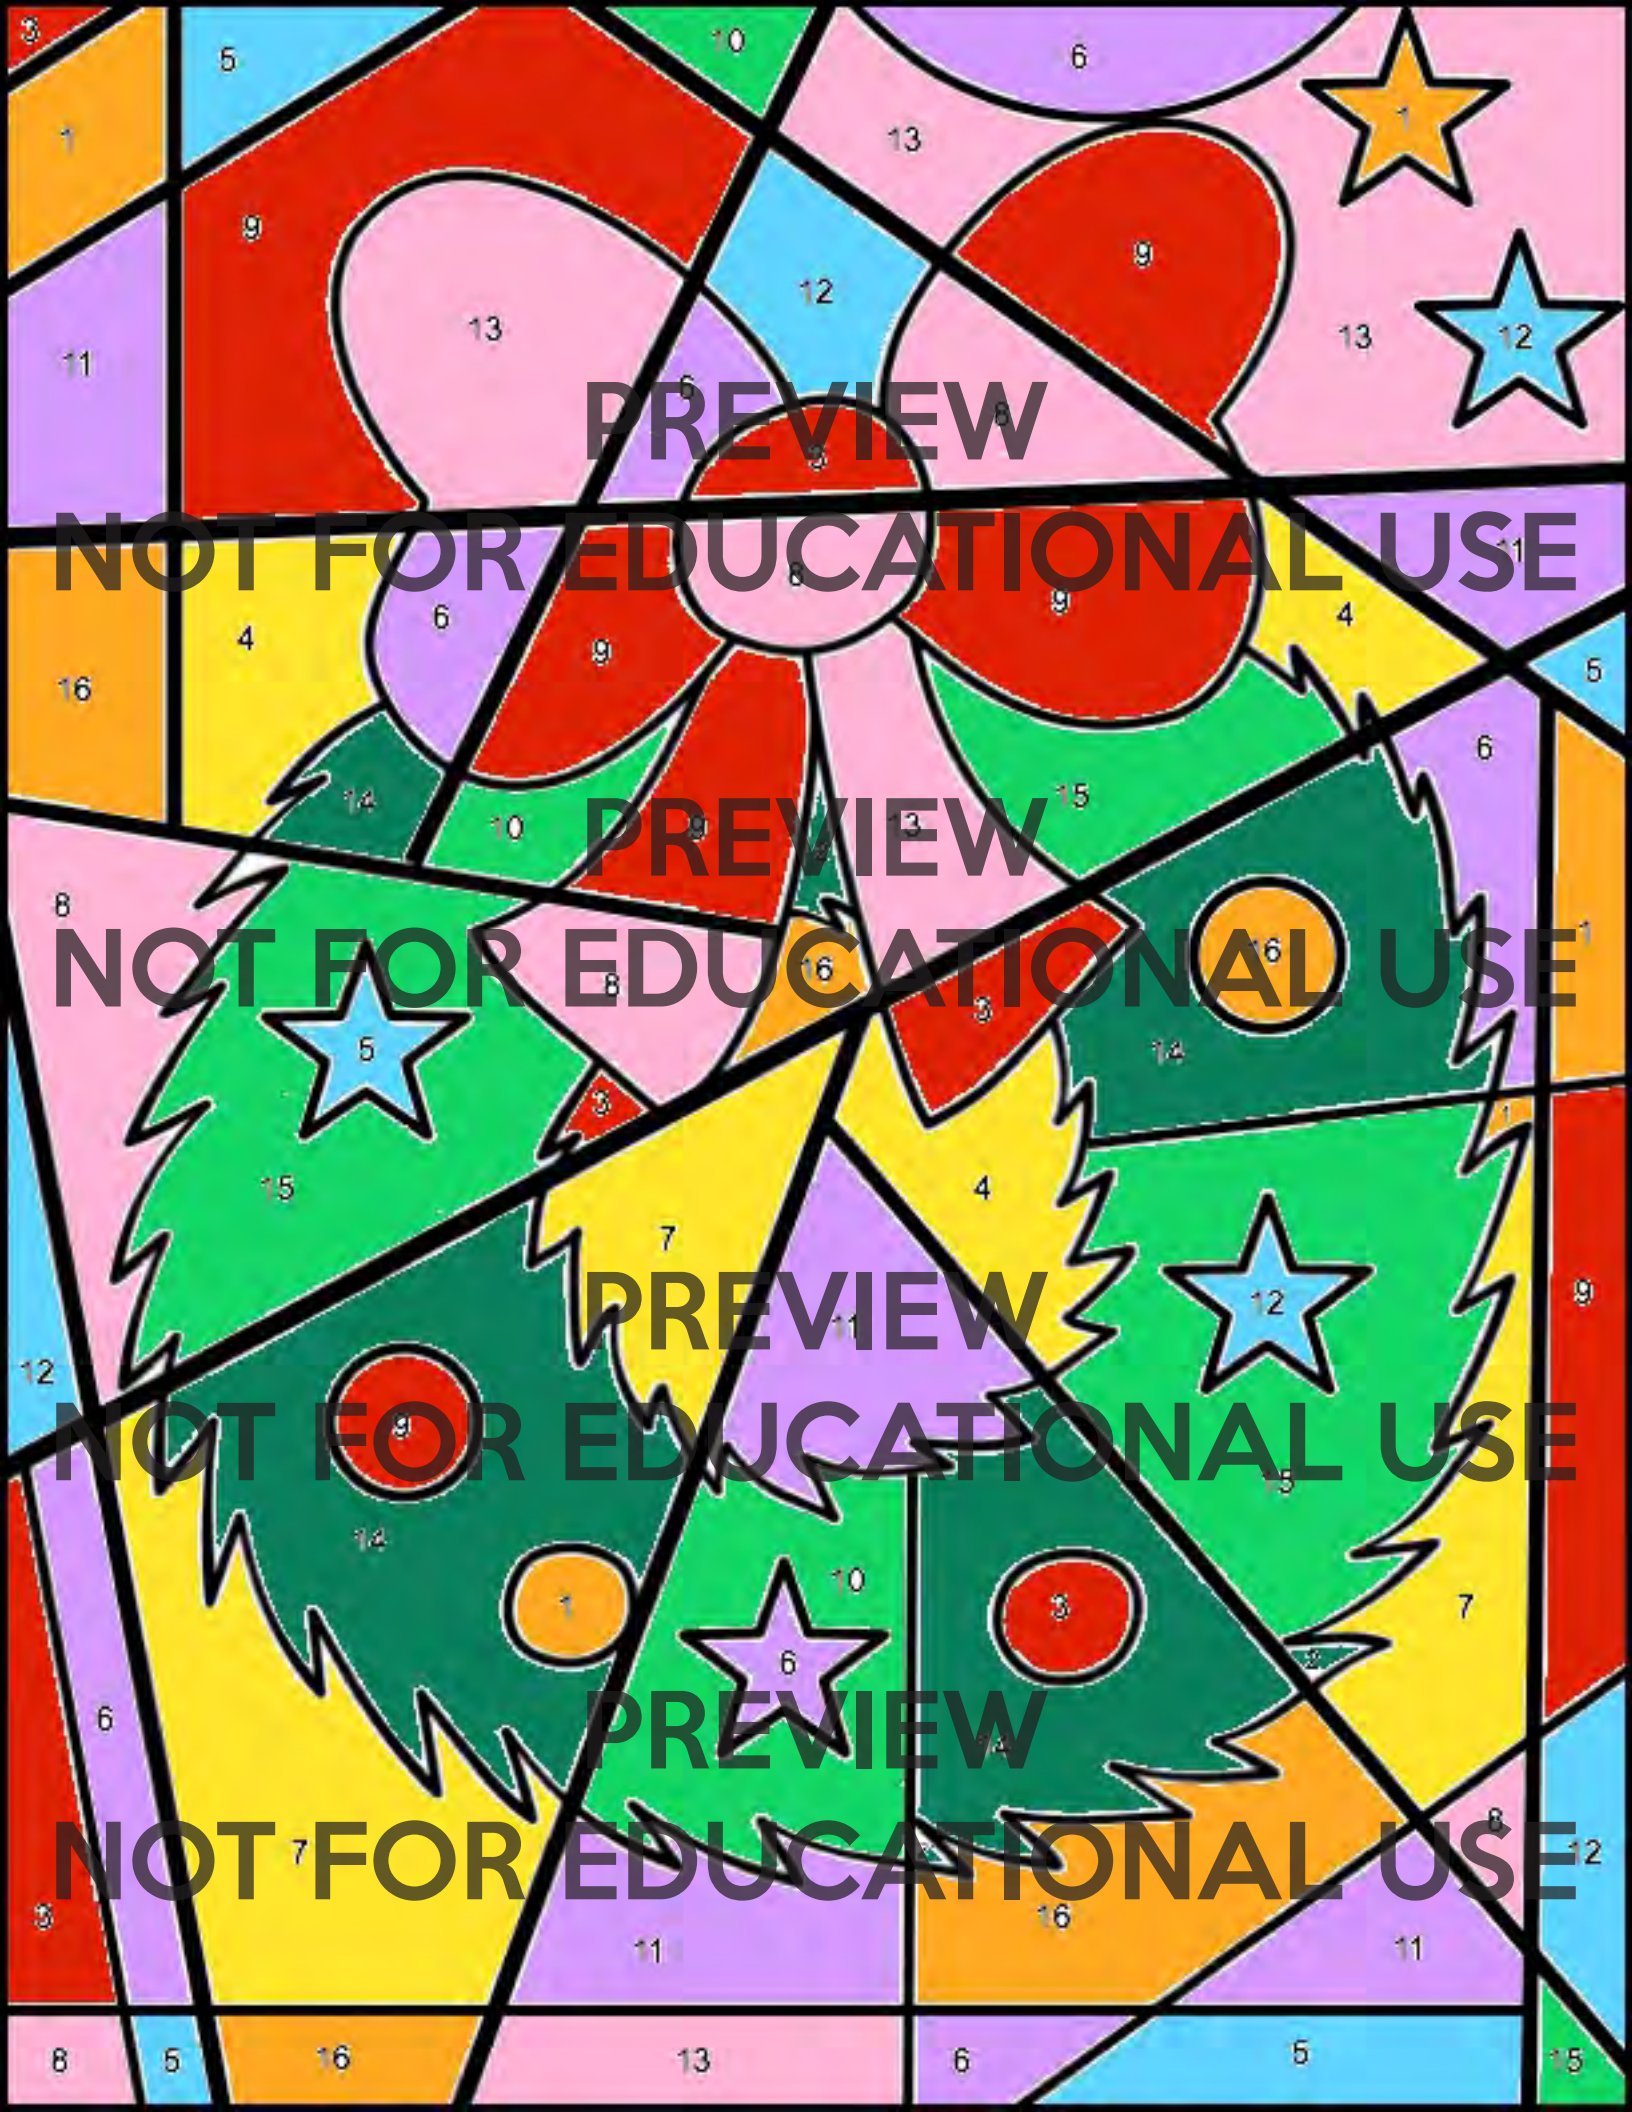

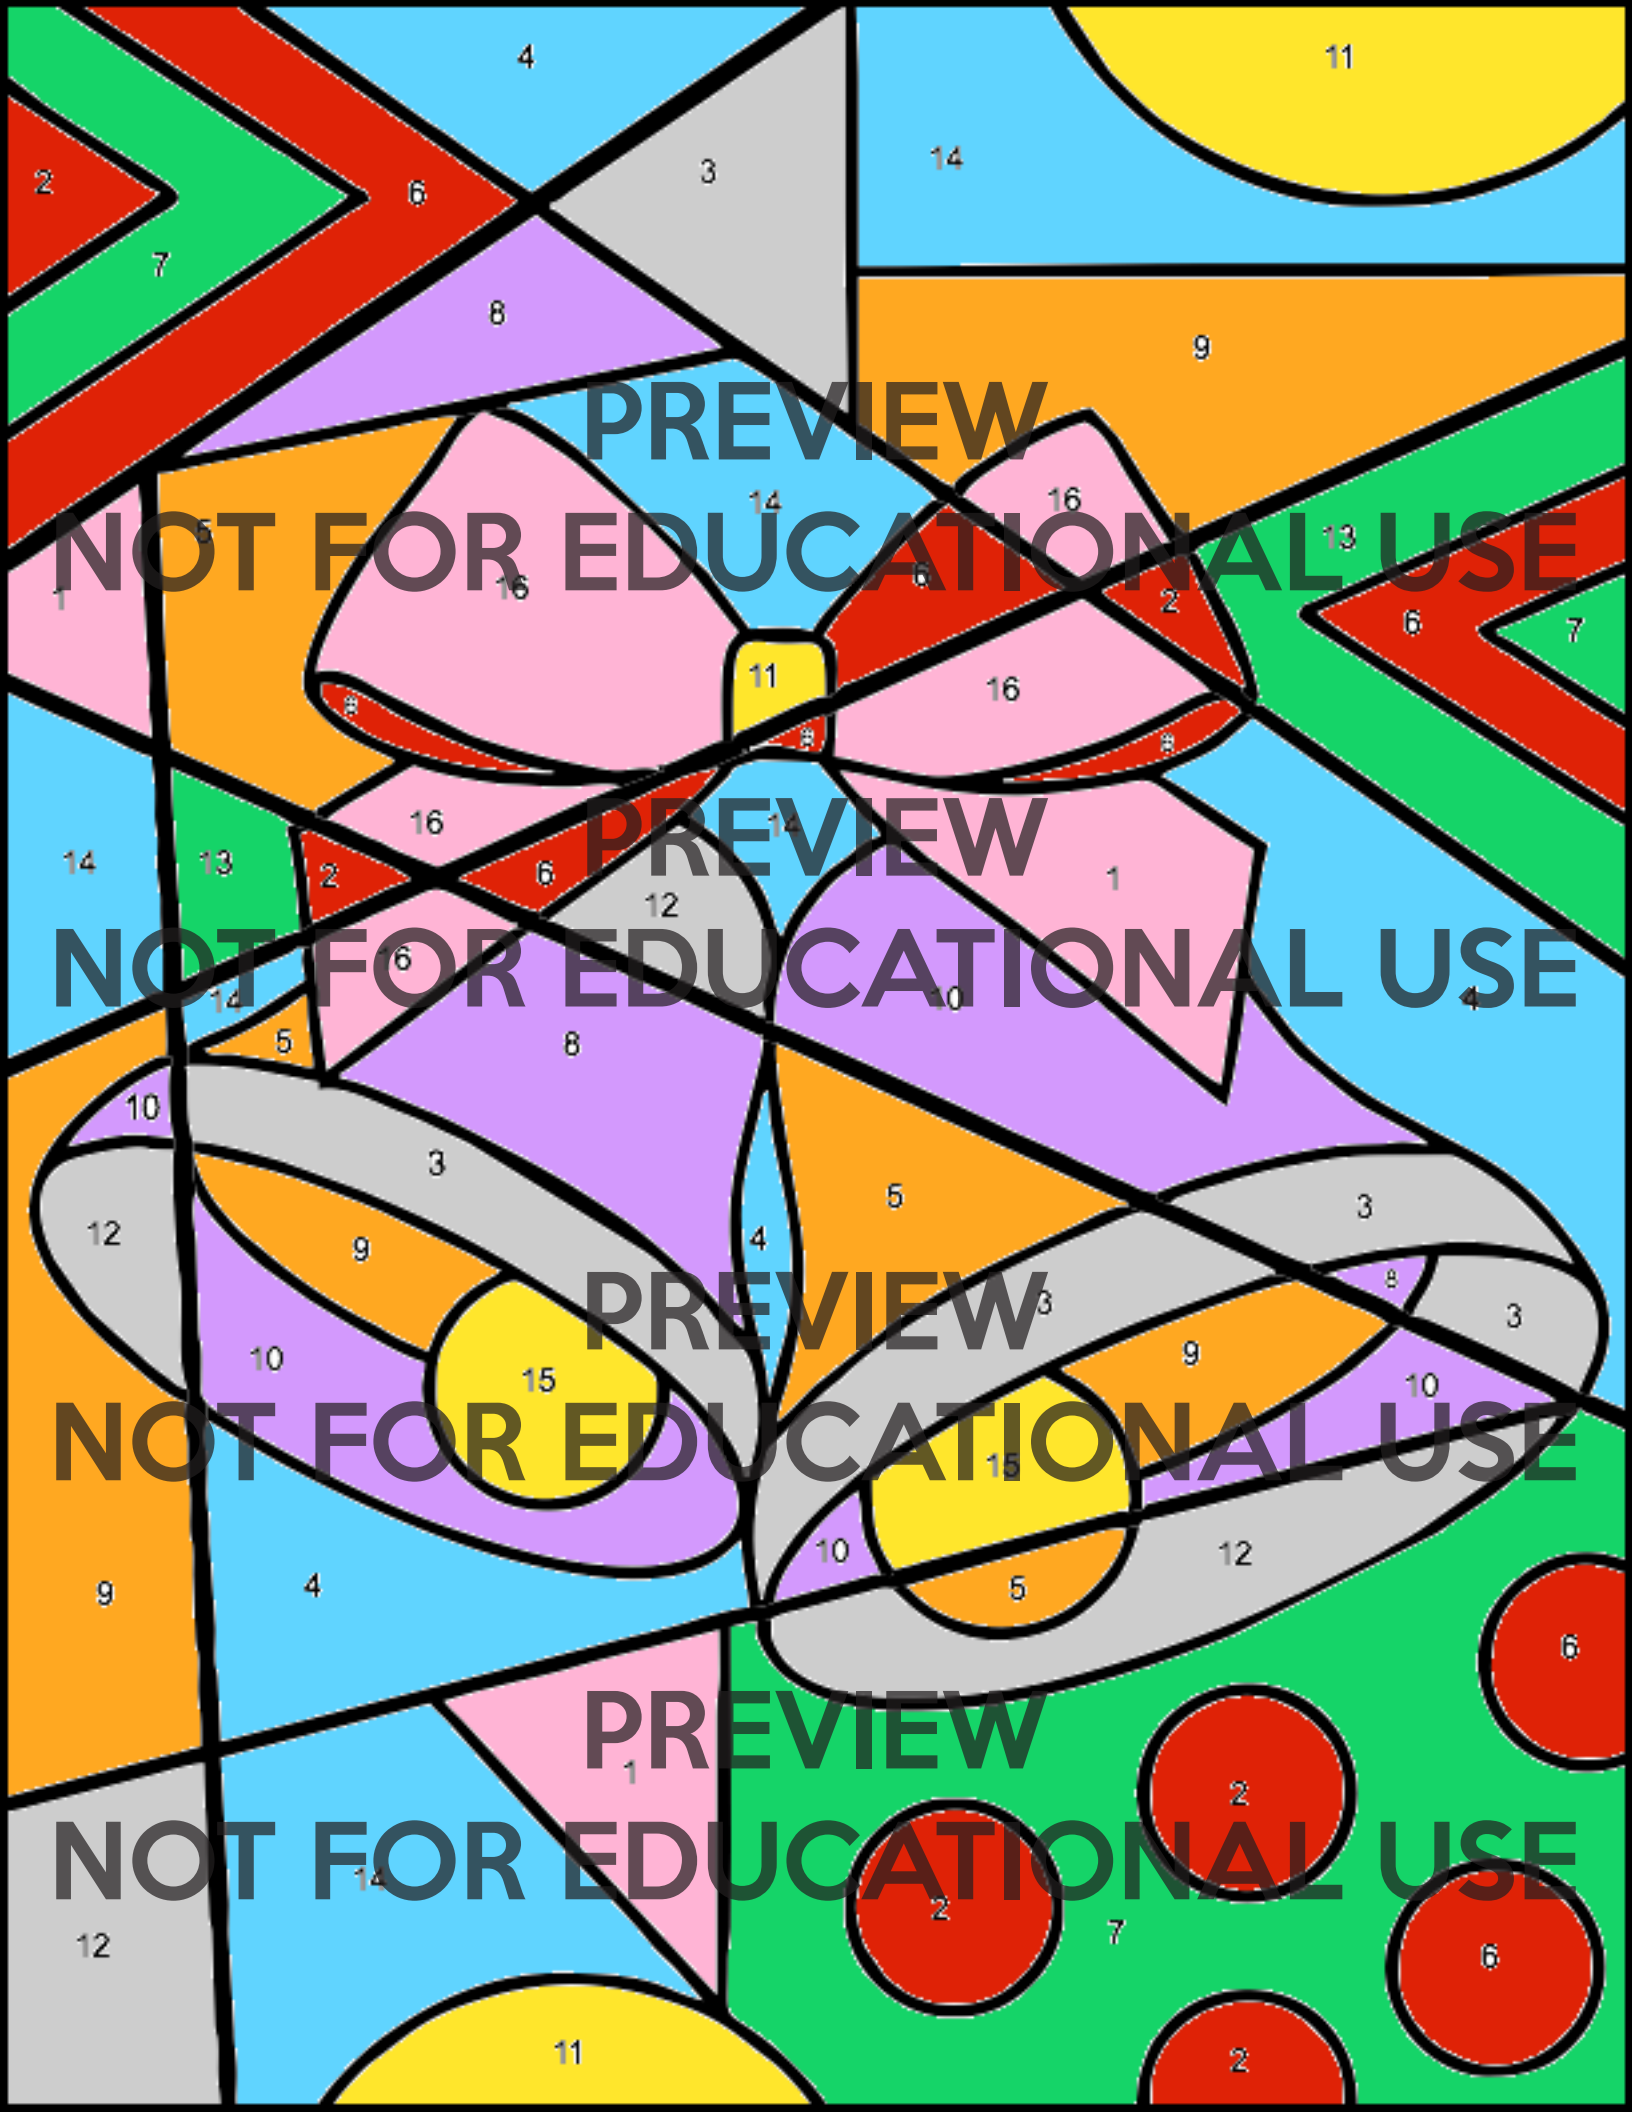

Christmas Tree Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Light Green	Conjunction = Dark Green

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Christmas trees grow in all fifty states in America.

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

Verb

2. Some families buy real Christmas trees and others buy fake trees.

Adjective

Pronoun

Adverb

Verb

3. Decorating Christmas trees originated in Germany.

Conjunction

Noun

Preposition

Pronoun

4. Christmas trees help remove dust from the air.

Verb

Preposition

Interjection

Adjective

5. Popcorn, cranberries, and nuts make for great garland although most people today use tinsel.

Noun

Preposition

Pronoun

Conjunction

6. Over thirty-five million Christmas trees are produced each year.

Verb

Noun

Adjective

Conjunction

7. Our dad always puts the gold star on top of the tree perfectly.

Noun

Verb

Adverb

Preposition

8. Before lights were invented, people decorated their trees with candles.

Conjunction

Interjection

Preposition

Noun

9. I prefer the artificial Christmas tree because it's easier to set up.

Preposition

Pronoun

Interjection

Verb

10. My cat loves to try and knock our Christmas tree over.

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

Adverb

11. If you have pets, be careful that they can't reach the glass ornaments.

Interjection

Noun

Verb

Pronoun

12. People love to decorate their homes with miniature Christmas trees during the holidays.

Adjective

Verb

Preposition

Adverb

13. Rockefeller Center is a huge tourist attraction during the winter.

Conjunction

Adjective

Preposition

Verb

14. Huh! It was Thomas Edison's assistant, Edward Johnson, who came up with the idea for electric Christmas lights!

Interjection

Adjective

Adverb

Pronoun

15. Families carefully hang Christmas lights on the outside of their homes.

Pronoun

Conjunction

Noun

Adverb

16. Wow! Christmas is a summer holiday in South Africa!

Noun

Interjection

Preposition

Pronoun

PREVIEW

2. Ice skating comes naturally to some people while it takes years of practice for others.

Conjunction Verb Interjection Adverb

PREVIEW

6. I can skate across the entire rink in 30 seconds.
- Preposition Adverb Noun Verb
- NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

- erb Pronoun
PREVIEW
before getting on the ice.

11. Ice skating outdoors adds a beautiful and cheerful atmosphere to the activity.
- Adjective Adverb Preposition Verb

- # PREVIEW

15. Figure skating is the oldest winter game in the Olympics.

16. Ew! Did you know skates used to be made from animal bones?
- Noun Adverb Pronoun Interjection

Candy Cane Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Light Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Dark Blue

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. The classic candy cane is red and white.
Adverb Preposition Interjection Adjective
 2. Whether or not you like peppermint, you can enjoy candy canes.
Pronoun Conjunction Verb Interjection
 3. Candy canes are over 350 years old.
Preposition Adverb Adjective Conjunction
 4. Whoa! Did you know they have Oreo flavored candy canes?
Conjunction Adverb Preposition Interjection
 5. Candy canes are shaped like a cane, hence their name.
Pronoun Noun Verb Interjection
 6. Someone once told me to try a chocolate dipped candy cane! Sounds delicious!
Pronoun Verb Adverb Preposition
 7. I even saw pickle flavor candy canes once! Yuck!
Preposition Adjective Interjection Noun
 8. Although you could eat candy canes any time of year, its become a symbol of Christmas.
Noun Conjunction Pronoun Adjective
 9. Candy canes are made from sugar, peppermint, and corn syrup.
Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun
 10. I love those chocolate candy bars that have candy cane pieces inside them!
Noun Verb Preposition Adverb
 11. You can actually use candy canes as stirrers for hot chocolate.
Adjective Adverb Preposition Pronoun
 12. Manufacturers have really come up with creative flavors worth trying.
Interjection Verb Pronoun Adjective
 13. My neighbor uses candy canes as ornaments on her Christmas tree.
Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun
 14. Santa Claus places a candy cane in everyone's stocking for Christmas.
Verb Preposition Pronoun Conjunction
 15. You can watch bakers carefully craft candy canes by hand in Disneyland during the holidays.
Preposition Adverb Conjunction Noun
 16. Alain Roby broke a World Record by creating the world's largest candy cane, measuring 51 feet
Interjection Noun Adjective Verb

ng, you'll find presents under the tree.

2. Anyone who misbehaves or pouts receives coal for Christmas.

5. Once we open our gifts from Santa, we then exchange gifts between family members.
Conjunction Noun Adjective

PREVIEW

16. I received a purple necklace from Jessica, my best friend.
- | | | | |
|--------|-----------|-------------|------|
| Adverb | Adjective | Preposition | Noun |
|--------|-----------|-------------|------|

Stocking Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Light Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Dark Blue

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. We hang our stockings upon the fireplace.
Noun Preposition Adjective Conjunction

2. If you don't have a fireplace, you could hang your stocking at the foot of your bed.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun

3. My stocking holds five pounds of candy.
Conjunction Noun Verb Preposition

4. Both of my dogs have their own stocking.
Noun Interjection Adjective Conjunction

5. How weird is it that we hang up socks and put gifts in them?
Noun Adjective Pronoun Preposition

6. Traditionally, people write their names on their own stocking.
Adverb Verb Adjective Preposition

7. Last year, Santa placed a new watch in my stocking.
Preposition Verb Adverb Conjunction

8. I would love Christmas even if we didn't get presents.
Interjection Preposition Noun Conjunction

9. Santa gives my dogs squeaky toys and bones for Christmas.
Conjunction Adjective Pronoun Verb

10. My mom annually buys us festive pajamas.
Adverb Interjection Adjective Conjunction

11. One year my stocking was empty and I think Santa forgot me! Yikes!
Pronoun Interjection Preposition Adverb

12. Julie has a "Frozen" themed stocking; it is blue.
Conjunction Noun Interjection Pronoun

13. After we open presents, my family watches the movie, "It's a Wonderful Life."
Pronoun Adverb Noun Adjective

14. Shh! If Santa knows you're awake, he won't show up!
Noun Interjection Adjective Conjunction

15. This year for Christmas, I want a new computer.
Pronoun Preposition Adjective Verb

16. Who doesn't like eating candy on Christmas morning?
Pronoun Interjection Adjective Conjunction

Santa Face Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Brown

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Santa only comes to your house after you fall asleep.

Verb

Adjective

Conjunction

Preposition

2. Whose idea was it to make Santa squeeze down the chimney?

Pronoun

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

3. I thought I saw Santa once up on the rooftop.

Adjective

Interjection

Adverb

Preposition

4. Everyone knows that Santa has a long, white, fluffy beard.

Verb

Adjective

Noun

Pronoun

5. Santa won't leave until he eats some cookies.

Adverb

Interjection

Preposition

Conjunction

6. I wonder what cookie is Santa's favorite.

Pronoun

Conjunction

Verb

Noun

7. What if Santa comes down the chimney while the fireplace is on? Ouch!

Adverb

Adjective

Interjection

Preposition

8. Fortunately, I was good this year so I know I am on Santa's nice list.

Adverb

Interjection

Noun

Pronoun

9. Do the elves stay up all night on Christmas or do they go to bed early?

Noun

Adjective

Pronoun

Interjection

10. Elves are Santa's helpers at the North Pole.

Adverb

Preposition

Noun

Verb

11. Buddy the Elf is a character from the hit Christmas film Elf.

Noun

Pronoun

Conjunction

Adjective

12. Mrs. Claus must be such a delightful person.

Conjunction

Noun

Interjection

Adjective

13. Our house is decorated perfectly this year!

Adjective

Adverb

Interjection

Preposition

14. Buddy's favorite food groups are candy, candy canes, candy corns, and syrup.

Preposition

Interjection

Conjunction

Noun

15. The reindeer eat carrots while Santa gets the good stuff.

Verb

Noun

Adverb

Conjunction

16. Alas! Christmas season is finally here!

Noun

Preposition

Interjection

Adjective

Reindeer Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Brown

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Reindeer are a real animal!

Adverb

Preposition

Interjection

Adjective

2. Reindeer are known as Caribou in North America.

Preposition

Noun

Verb

Interjection

3. Some reindeer actually develop red noses! Whoa.

Verb

Adverb

Adjective

Conjunction

4. Reindeer live up to 15 years in the wild!

Conjunction

Adverb

Preposition

Verb

5. Wow! Reindeer run between 36-48 miles per hour.

Pronoun

Noun

Verb

Interjection

6. I think reindeer are so cute, but my sister says they freak her out.

Pronoun

Verb

Adverb

Preposition

7. One day, I want to get a picture with a real reindeer.

Preposition

Adjective

Noun

Adverb

8. Reindeer are vegetarians, so they don't eat meat.

Noun

Conjunction

Pronoun

Adjective

9. Oh no! Reindeer are considered prey by bears and even eagles!

Noun

Interjection

Preposition

Pronoun

10. Rudolph is a famous reindeer all because of his red nose.

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

Pronoun

11. Reindeer must be strong to pull a heavy sleigh with Santa on it.

Adjective

Noun

Preposition

Pronoun

12. Everyone loved Rudolph when he saved the day on Christmas.

Preposition

Verb

Pronoun

Adverb

13. Rudolph was always worthy, but the others were too careless to realize.

Noun

Interjection

Conjunction

Pronoun

14. Rudolph guides Santa's sleigh at night with his shiny nose that lights up the sky.

Verb

Preposition

Pronoun

Conjunction

15. The reindeer are very brave to fly in the sky all through the night.

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

Noun

16. I can confidently name all of Santa's reindeer.

Interjection

Noun

Adjective

Adverb

Gingerbread Man Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Brown

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

- I love the smell of gingerbread!
Conjunction Preposition Pronoun Noun
- Holy smokes! My mom must have baked 1,000 cookies this year.
Adverb Noun Interjection Adjective
- Gingerbread is a great cookie to build with because it is sturdy.
Verb Preposition Pronoun Conjunction
- My sister wants to officially enter a gingerbread house building competition.
Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb
- Although I hate to bake, I really enjoy eating the cookies.
Conjunction Adjective Adverb Pronoun
- Jason puts a dozen gingerbread cookies into the oven.
Noun Preposition Pronoun Conjunction
- I burned my hand on the stove while I was baking.
Conjunction Adverb Preposition Verb
- I accidentally touched the pan without an oven mitt.
Noun Pronoun Adverb Verb
- We decorate the cookies with sprinkles and icing when they're cool.
Adverb Verb Adjective Conjunction
- Cinnamon and ginger are important spices in gingerbread.
Noun Adjective Adverb Pronoun
- Gingerbread cookies are usually rolled out to make little ginger people and other holiday characters.
Adverb Preposition Noun Adjective
- Molasses cookies are chewy while gingersnap cookies are crisper in texture.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun
- Yum! Gingerbread cookies are delicious!
Interjection Pronoun Conjunction Verb
- I like to decorate my gingerbread man cookies with Santa hats on their heads.
Adjective Verb Adverb Pronoun
- Molasses is a thick, dark syrup that fits perfectly in any gingerbread recipe.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun
- Molasses isn't just good for making desserts; people use it to make barbecue sauce too.
Pronoun Verb Conjunction Adverb

Snowman Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Grey

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Brrr! It's freezing outside!

Interjection

Verb

Conjunction

Adverb

2. Snow that is fluffy is the best because that's the kind that sticks.

Pronoun

Verb

Conjunction

Adverb

3. Everybody plays outside when its snowing!

Adverb

Pronoun

Interjection

Adjective

4. We like to go sledding or build a snowman.

Noun

Preposition

Pronoun

Conjunction

5. I never stay in the house if it's snowing out.

Verb

Adverb

Interjection

Adjective

6. Hmm! It has to be below 32 degrees Fahrenheit for it to snow.

Interjection

Adverb

Noun

Verb

7. When there is more than four inches of snow on the ground, school is usually cancelled!

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

Preposition

8. Frosty is a character who is brought to life by a magical hat.

Noun

Adjective

Pronoun

Conjunction

9. "Frosty the Snowman" was a hit song before it was a movie.

Adjective

Adverb

Noun

Interjection

10. Jack Frost was introduced in a 1979 Christmas special where the character Jack tries his hand living as a human.

Pronoun

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

11. Jack Frost the character also appeared as the villain in the movie The Santa Clause 3.

Conjunction

Adverb

Preposition

Verb

12. Another famous snowman everyone seems to know today is Olaf from Frozen.

Preposition

Verb

Adjective

Conjunction

13. Olaf is sweet, humorous, and a true friend to the characters in Frozen.

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

Interjection

14. Kids honestly love Olaf more than Frosty—well, probably!

Verb

Adjective

Adverb

Pronoun

15. Olaf is so lovable that he has his own spinoff film called Olaf's Frozen Adventure.

Conjunction

Adverb

Noun

Preposition

16. He is famous for his quote, "Some people are worth melting for."

Noun

Adverb

Pronoun

Interjection

Ornaments Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Light Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Dark Blue

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

- [illegible]

Wreath Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Light Green	Conjunction = Dark Green

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. A wreath is a round arrangement of flowers or leaves.

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

Noun

2. Christmas wreaths are a popular decoration that many people use today.

Noun

Pronoun

Adverb

Conjunction

3. Most people style their wreaths with a big bow of some kind.

Conjunction

Noun

Adjective

Pronoun

4. You could put a wreath on a window, a door... I've even seen them on cars!

Adverb

Preposition

Interjection

Adjective

5. I helped my mom buy a wreath for our house.

Noun

Preposition

Verb

Conjunction

6. Instead of hanging a wreath, you could place it on a table and put candles in the center.

Preposition

Adverb

Adjective

Conjunction

7. It's famously called an Advent wreath or Advent crown—which comes from an old Christian tradition.

Noun

Verb

Adverb

Preposition

8. Anyone could really wear a wreath as a crown.

Conjunction

Pronoun

Preposition

Noun

9. Advent calendars are still used today to count down the 25 days of Christmas.

Noun

Pronoun

Interjection

Verb

10. You get to eat a piece of chocolate every day until December 25th! Yum!

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

Interjection

11. A lot of real Christmas wreaths are made from Evergreen trees.

Pronoun

Preposition

Verb

Interjection

12. The circular shape of a wreath symbolizes eternal life.

Adjective

Verb

Pronoun

Adverb

13. My sister and I once made a wreath out of cookies!

Pronoun

Adverb

Preposition

Verb

14. To make a wreath of cookies, we just put a bunch of green cookies in a circle and added cranberries for holly.

Adverb

Adjective

Noun

Conjunction

15. I saw someone once made a wreath out of coffee filters! Cool!

Pronoun

Conjunction

Interjection

Adjective

16. The wreaths with faux snow on them are some of the most popular.

Noun

Adjective

Preposition

Pronoun

Christmas Bell Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Grey

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. People in our town decorate the streetlights with silver bells.
 Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun
2. The ringing of bells is common for celebrations and funerals.
 Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb
3. Bells are considered a percussion instrument because you strike a bell to make a sound.
 Interjection Conjunction Preposition Noun
4. Bells make beautiful music if you play them correctly.
 Noun Adverb Verb Preposition
5. “Jingle Bell Rock” is an awesome song!
 Pronoun Adjective Conjunction Noun
6. Another fantastic song is “Jingle Bells.”
 Pronoun Verb Preposition Noun
7. Jingle bells are called jingle bells because—yup!—they make a jingle sound.
 Interjection Adjective Adverb Conjunction
8. “Jingle Bells” was supposed to be a song for Thanksgiving.
 Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun
9. You can make cute Christmas bells easily with paper cups, some string, and a lot of glitter!
 Preposition Adjective Interjection Noun
10. In the movie The Polar Express, only those who truly believe in Santa can hear the ringing of the bell.
 Adverb Noun Interjection Preposition
11. The bell meaningfully represents the spirit of Christmas.
 Noun Interjection Adjective Adverb
12. The song “Jingle Bells” was originally titled “One Horse Open Sleigh,” but they changed it a couple years later because that’s how people referred to the song.
 Conjunction Interjection Preposition Noun
13. Gee! A jingle bell can also be called a sleigh bell!
 Verb Conjunction Noun Interjection
14. The part of the bell that is suspended inside is called the clapper.
 Adverb Verb Preposition Pronoun
15. I actually learned in band that other types of bells include the carillon, the handbell, and the cowbell.
 Noun Preposition Adverb Interjection
16. My grandpa gave us all handbells for Christmas one year. Big mistake!
 Pronoun Adjective Conjunction Noun

Christmas Tree Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Light Green	Conjunction = Dark Green

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Christmas trees grow in all fifty states in America.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Verb

2. Some families buy real Christmas trees and others buy fake trees.
Adjective Pronoun Adverb Verb

3. Decorating Christmas trees originated in Germany.
Conjunction Noun Preposition Pronoun

4. Christmas trees help remove dust from the air.
Verb Preposition Interjection Adjective

5. Popcorn, cranberries, and nuts make for great garland although most people today use tinsel.
Noun Preposition Pronoun Conjunction

6. Over thirty-five million Christmas trees are produced each year.
Verb Noun Adjective Conjunction

7. Our dad always puts the gold star on top of the tree perfectly.
Noun Verb Adverb Preposition

8. Before lights were invented, people decorated their trees with candles.
Conjunction Interjection Preposition Noun

9. I prefer the artificial Christmas tree because it's easier to set up.
Preposition Pronoun Interjection Verb

10. My cat loves to try and knock our Christmas tree over.
Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb

11. If you have pets, be careful that they can't reach the glass ornaments.
Interjection Noun Verb Pronoun

12. People love to decorate their homes with miniature Christmas trees during the holidays.
Adjective Verb Preposition Adverb

13. Rockefeller Center is a huge tourist attraction during the winter.
Conjunction Adjective Preposition Verb

14. Huh! It was Thomas Edison's assistant, Edward Johnson, who came up with the idea for electric Christmas lights!
Interjection Adjective Adverb Pronoun

15. Families carefully hang Christmas lights on the outside of their homes.
Pronoun Conjunction Noun Adverb

16. Wow! Christmas is a summer holiday in South Africa!
Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun

Ice Skate Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Grey

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

- Ice skating is a really fun way to stay warm during the holidays.
Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb
- Ice skating ~~comes~~ naturally to some people while it takes years of practice for others.
Conjunction Verb Interjection Adverb
- Skating is exercise, so if you are indoors, you don't want to be wearing your thickest winter jacket.
Adverb Preposition Noun Adjective
- My mom worries so much; she thinks ice skating is dangerous.
Noun Pronoun Preposition Conjunction
- It's not safe to ice skate on a frozen lake.
Adverb Noun Interjection Adjective
- I can skate across the entire rink in 30 seconds.
Preposition Adverb Noun Verb
- You could break a bone if you fall hard enough on the ice.
Noun Verb Pronoun Adverb
- I gracefully glide across the ice just like a professional.
Noun Adverb Pronoun Conjunction
- My family is going to skate at Rockefeller Center this year! Yippee!
Adjective Adverb Pronoun Interjection
- My dad stretches his legs and arms before getting on the ice.
Pronoun Noun Verb Conjunction
- Ice skating outdoors adds a beautiful and cheerful atmosphere to the activity.
Adjective Adverb Preposition Verb
- My sister needs to learn to stop because right now she just skates right into the wall.
Adverb Verb Adjective Conjunction
- Hold hands with someone if you are afraid to fall on the ice.
Preposition Pronoun Conjunction Interjection
- I lean forward slightly when I skate so I don't fall backward.
Adverb Adjective Verb Pronoun
- Figure skating is the oldest winter game in the Olympics.
Conjunction Adverb Noun Preposition
- Ew! Did you know skates used to be made from animal bones?
Noun Adverb Pronoun Interjection

Candy Cane Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Light Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Dark Blue

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. The classic candy cane is red and white.
 Adverb Preposition Interjection Adjective

2. Whether or not you like peppermint, you can enjoy candy canes.
 Pronoun Conjunction Verb Interjection

3. Candy canes are over 350 years old.
Preposition Adverb Adjective Conjunction

4. Whoa! Did you know they have Oreo flavored candy canes?
 Conjunction Adverb Preposition Interjection

5. Candy canes are shaped like a cane, hence their name!
 Pronoun Noun Verb Interjection

6. Someone once told me to try a chocolate dipped candy cane. Sounds delicious!
Pronoun Verb Adverb Preposition

7. I even saw pickle flavor candy canes once! Yuck!
 Preposition Adjective Interjection Noun

8. Although you could eat candy canes any time of year, its become a symbol of Christmas.
 Noun Conjunction Pronoun Adjective

9. Candy canes are made from sugar, peppermint, and corn syrup.
Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun

10. I love those chocolate candy bars that have candy cane pieces inside them!
 Noun Verb Preposition Adverb

11. You can actually use candy canes as stirrers for hot chocolate.
 Adjective Adverb Preposition Pronoun

12. Manufacturers have really come up with creative flavors worth trying.
 Interjection Verb Pronoun Adjective

13. My neighbor uses candy canes as ornaments on her Christmas tree.
 Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun

14. Santa Claus places a candy cane in everyone's stocking for Christmas.
Verb Preposition Pronoun Conjunction

15. You can watch bakers carefully craft candy canes by hand in Disneyland during the holidays.
 Preposition Adverb Conjunction Noun

16. Alain Roby broke a World Record by creating the world's largest candy cane, measuring 51 feet long!
 Interjection Noun Adjective Verb

Stocking Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Light Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Dark Blue

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. We hang our stockings upon the fireplace.
Noun Preposition Adjective Conjunction

2. If you don't have a fireplace, you could hang your stocking at the foot of your bed.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun

3. My stocking holds five pounds of candy.
Conjunction Noun Verb Preposition

4. Both of my dogs have their own stocking.
Noun Interjection Adjective Conjunction

5. How weird is it that we hang up socks and put gifts in them?
Noun Adjective Pronoun Preposition

6. Traditionally, people write their names on their own stocking.
Adverb Verb Adjective Preposition

7. Last year, Santa placed a new watch in my stocking.
Preposition Verb Adverb Conjunction

8. I would love Christmas even if we didn't get presents.
Interjection Preposition Noun Conjunction

9. Santa gives my dogs squeaky toys and bones for Christmas.
Conjunction Adjective Pronoun Verb

10. My mom annually buys us festive pajamas.
Adverb Interjection Adjective Conjunction

11. One year my stocking was empty and I think Santa forgot me! Yikes!
Pronoun Interjection Preposition Adverb

12. Julie has a "Frozen" themed stocking; it is blue.
Conjunction Noun Interjection Pronoun

13. After we open presents, my family watches the movie, "It's a Wonderful Life."
Pronoun Adverb Noun Adjective

14. Shh! If Santa knows you're awake, he won't show up!
Noun Interjection Adjective Conjunction

15. This year for Christmas, I want a new computer.
Pronoun Preposition Adjective Verb

16. Who doesn't like eating candy on Christmas morning?
Pronoun Interjection Adjective Conjunction

Santa Face Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Brown

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Santa only comes to your house after you fall asleep.
Verb Adjective Conjunction Preposition

2. Whose idea was it to make Santa squeeze down the chimney?
Pronoun Preposition Adjective Conjunction

3. I thought I saw Santa once up on the rooftop.
Adjective Interjection Adverb Preposition

4. Everyone knows that Santa has a long, white, fluffy beard.
Verb Adjective Noun Pronoun

5. Santa won't leave until he eats some cookies.
Adverb Interjection Preposition Conjunction

6. I wonder what cookie is Santa's favorite.
Pronoun Conjunction Verb Noun

7. What if Santa comes down the chimney while the fireplace is on? Ouch!
Adverb Adjective Interjection Preposition

8. Fortunately, I was good this year so I know I am on Santa's nice list.
Adverb Interjection Noun Pronoun

9. Do the elves stay up all night on Christmas or do they go to bed early?
Noun Adjective Pronoun Interjection

10. Elves are Santa's helpers at the North Pole.
Adverb Preposition Noun Verb

11. Buddy the Elf is a character from the hit Christmas film Elf.
Noun Pronoun Conjunction Adjective

12. Mrs. Claus must be such a delightful person.
Conjunction Noun Interjection Adjective

13. Our house is decorated perfectly this year!
Adjective Adverb Interjection Preposition

14. Buddy's favorite food groups are candy, candy canes, candy corns, and syrup.
Preposition Interjection Conjunction Noun

15. The reindeer eat carrots while Santa gets the good stuff.
Verb Noun Adverb Conjunction

16. Alas! Christmas season is finally here!
Noun Preposition Interjection Adjective

Reindeer Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Brown

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Reindeer are a real animal!

Adverb

Preposition

Interjection

Adjective

2. Reindeer are known as Caribou in North America.

Preposition

Noun

Verb

Interjection

3. Some reindeer actually develop red noses! Whoa.

Verb

Adverb

Adjective

Conjunction

4. Reindeer live up to 15 years in the wild!

Conjunction

Adverb

Preposition

Verb

5. Wow! Reindeer run between 36-48 miles per hour.

Pronoun

Noun

Verb

Interjection

6. I think reindeer are so cute, but my sister says they freak her out.

Pronoun

Verb

Adverb

Preposition

7. One day, I want to get a picture with a real reindeer.

Preposition

Adjective

Noun

Adverb

8. Reindeer are vegetarians, so they don't eat meat.

Noun

Conjunction

Pronoun

Adjective

9. Oh no! Reindeer are considered prey by bears and even eagles!

Noun

Interjection

Preposition

Pronoun

10. Rudolph is a famous reindeer all because of his red nose.

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

Pronoun

11. Reindeer must be strong to pull a heavy sleigh with Santa on it.

Adjective

Noun

Preposition

Pronoun

12. Everyone loved Rudolph when he saved the day on Christmas.

Preposition

Verb

Pronoun

Adverb

13. Rudolph was always worthy, but the others were too careless to realize.

Noun

Interjection

Conjunction

Pronoun

14. Rudolph guides Santa's sleigh at night with his shiny nose that lights up the sky.

Verb

Preposition

Pronoun

Conjunction

15. The reindeer are very brave to fly in the sky all through the night.

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

Noun

16. I can confidently name all of Santa's reindeer.

Interjection

Noun

Adjective

Adverb

Gingerbread Man Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Brown

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

- I love the smell of gingerbread!
Conjunction Preposition Pronoun Noun
- Holy smokes! My mom must have baked 1,000 cookies this year.
Adverb Noun Interjection Adjective
- Gingerbread is a great cookie to build with because it is sturdy.
Verb Preposition Pronoun Conjunction
- My sister wants to officially enter a gingerbread house building competition.
Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb
- Although I hate to bake, I really enjoy eating the cookies.
Conjunction Adjective Adverb Pronoun
- Jason puts a dozen gingerbread cookies into the oven.
Noun Preposition Pronoun Conjunction
- I burned my hand on the stove while I was baking.
Conjunction Adverb Preposition Verb
- I accidentally touched the pan without an oven mitt.
Noun Pronoun Adverb Verb
- We decorate the cookies with sprinkles and icing when they're cool.
Adverb Verb Adjective Conjunction
- Cinnamon and ginger are important spices in gingerbread.
Noun Adjective Adverb Pronoun
- Gingerbread cookies are usually rolled out to make little ginger people and other holiday characters.
Adverb Preposition Noun Adjective
- Molasses cookies are chewy while gingersnap cookies are crisper in texture.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun
- Yum! Gingerbread cookies are delicious!
Interjection Pronoun Conjunction Verb
- I like to decorate my gingerbread man cookies with Santa hats on their heads.
Adjective Verb Adverb Pronoun
- Molasses is a thick, dark syrup that fits perfectly in any gingerbread recipe.
Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun
- Molasses isn't just good for making desserts; people use it to make barbecue sauce too.
Pronoun Verb Conjunction Adverb

Snowman Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Grey

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Brrr! It's freezing outside!

Interjection

Verb

Conjunction

Adverb

2. Snow that is fluffy is the best because that's the kind that sticks.

Pronoun

Verb

Conjunction

Adverb

3. Everybody plays outside when its snowing!

Adverb

Pronoun

Interjection

Adjective

4. We like to go sledding or build a snowman.

Noun

Preposition

Pronoun

Conjunction

5. I never stay in the house if it's snowing out.

Verb

Adverb

Interjection

Adjective

6. Hmm! It has to be below 32 degrees Fahrenheit for it to snow.

Interjection

Adverb

Noun

Verb

7. When there is more than four inches of snow on the ground, school is usually cancelled!

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

Preposition

8. Frosty is a character who is brought to life by a magical hat.

Noun

Adjective

Pronoun

Conjunction

9. "Frosty the Snowman" was a hit song before it was a movie.

Adjective

Adverb

Noun

Interjection

10. Jack Frost was introduced in a 1979 Christmas special where the character Jack tries his hand living as a human.

Pronoun

Noun

Verb

Conjunction

11. Jack Frost the character also appeared as the villain in the movie The Santa Clause 3.

Conjunction

Adverb

Preposition

Verb

12. Another famous snowman everyone seems to know today is Olaf from Frozen.

Preposition

Verb

Adjective

Conjunction

13. Olaf is sweet, humorous, and a true friend to the characters in Frozen.

Preposition

Adjective

Conjunction

Interjection

14. Kids honestly love Olaf more than Frosty—well, probably!

Verb

Adjective

Adverb

Pronoun

15. Olaf is so lovable that he has his own spinoff film called Olaf's Frozen Adventure.

Conjunction

Adverb

Noun

Preposition

16. He is famous for his quote, "Some people are worth melting for."

Noun

Adverb

Pronoun

Interjection

Ornaments Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Light Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Dark Blue

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. Families cheerfully decorate their trees every year with Christmas ornaments.
Verb Adverb Adjective Conjunction
2. My dad claims his favorite ornament is the Christmas pickle which comes from an old German legend.
Verb Preposition Interjection Pronoun
3. People used to decorate their Christmas tree with apples.
Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb
4. Later, people started using glass ornaments instead.
Pronoun Noun Verb Adjective
5. Some people stick to homemade ornaments while others use the store bought kind.
Noun Conjunction Adjective Adverb
6. Be careful with heavy ornaments and put them toward the bottom of the tree.
Adjective Verb Preposition Adverb
7. If the glass falls from a lower height, they're less likely to break!
Noun Preposition Pronoun Conjunction
8. My mom likes to use all of the colors on our Christmas tree.
Pronoun Interjection Preposition Adjective
9. Some people have a certain color scheme they like to stick to.
Adjective Noun Conjunction Adverb
10. Not my neighbor though! Her tree is filled with red, orange, yellow, and green ornaments!
Conjunction Adverb Pronoun Interjection
11. Thomas and Betsy use only silver and white colored decorations in their entire house!
Adjective Conjunction Noun Preposition
12. Hey! Do you prefer rainbow lights or all white lights?
Verb Conjunction Interjection Adjective
13. Some ornaments cost over 1,000 dollars! Whoa! But you can also buy ornaments at your local dollar store.
Adverb Interjection Preposition Noun
14. In 2019, The Rockefeller Center Christmas tree, in New York City, was topped with a Swarovski Crystal Star.
Pronoun Adverb Noun Preposition
15. The 900-pound Swarovski crystal star had to be cautiously raised by a crane to be placed on the tree.
Adverb Preposition Interjection Pronoun
16. The star was crafted from 3 million dazzling Swarovski Crystals!
Adverb Adjective Verb Noun

Wreath Picture Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Light Green	Conjunction = Dark Green

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. A wreath is a round arrangement of flowers or leaves.
 Preposition Adjective Conjunction Noun
2. Christmas wreaths are a popular decoration that many people use today.
 Noun Pronoun Adverb Conjunction
3. Most people style their wreaths with a big how of some kind.
 Conjunction Noun Adjective Pronoun
4. You could put a wreath on a window, a door... I've even seen them on cars!
Adverb Preposition Interjection Adjective
5. I helped my mom buy a wreath for our house.
 Noun Preposition Verb Conjunction
6. Instead of hanging a wreath, you could place it on a table and put candles in the center.
Preposition Adverb Adjective Conjunction
7. It's famously called an Advent wreath or Advent crown which comes from an old Christian tradition.
 Noun Verb Adverb Preposition
8. I guess technically, anyone could wear a wreath as a crown.
 Conjunction Pronoun Preposition Noun
9. Advent calendars are still used today to count down the 25 days of Christmas.
Noun Pronoun Interjection Verb
10. You get to eat a piece of chocolate every day until December 25th! Yum!
 Noun Verb Conjunction Interjection
11. A lot of real Christmas wreaths are made from Evergreen trees.
 Pronoun Preposition Verb Interjection
12. The circular shape of a wreath symbolizes eternal life.
 Adjective Verb Pronoun Adverb
13. My sister and I once made a wreath out of cookies!
Pronoun Adverb Preposition Verb
14. To make a wreath of cookies, we just put a bunch of green cookies in a circle and added cranberries for holly.
 Adverb Adjective Noun Conjunction
15. I saw someone once made a wreath out of coffee filters! Cool!
 Pronoun Conjunction Interjection Adjective
16. The wreaths with faux snow on them are some of the most popular.
 Noun Adjective Preposition Pronoun

Christmas Bell Guide

Noun = Red	Verb = Blue	Pronoun = Pink	Adjective = Orange
Adverb = Yellow	Preposition = Purple	Interjection = Green	Conjunction = Grey

Directions: Determine the part of speech of the bolded words in the sentences below. Match your answers with the coordinating color from the grid above. For example, a noun is the color red. Next, find the corresponding question number on your coloring page. Color in each numbered space(s) on the coloring page with the color that is paired with your answer. For example, If number one is a noun, color all the spaces containing the number one red.

1. People in our town decorate the streetlights with silver bells.
Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun

2. The ringing of bells is common for celebrations and funerals.
Noun Verb Conjunction Adverb

3. Bells are considered a percussion instrument because you strike a bell to make a sound.
Interjection Conjunction Preposition Noun

4. Bells make beautiful music if you play them correctly.
Noun Adverb Verb Preposition

5. "Jingle Bell Rock" is an awesome song.
Pronoun Adjective Conjunction Noun

6. Another fantastic song is "Jingle Bells."
Pronoun Verb Preposition Noun

7. Jingle bells are called jingle bells because — yup! — they make a jingle sound.
Interjection Adjective Adverb Conjunction

8. "Jingle Bells" was supposed to be a song for Thanksgiving.
Noun Interjection Preposition Pronoun

9. You can make cute Christmas bells easily with paper cups, some string, and a lot of glitter!
Preposition Adjective Interjection Noun

10. In the movie The Polar Express, only those who truly believe in Santa can hear the ringing of the bell.
Adverb Noun Interjection Preposition

11. The bell meaningfully represents the spirit of Christmas.
Noun Interjection Adjective Adverb

12. The song "Jingle Bells" was originally titled "One Horse Open Sleigh," but they changed it a couple years later because that's how people referred to the song.
Conjunction Interjection Preposition Noun

13. Gee! A jingle bell can also be called a sleigh bell!
Verb Conjunction Noun Interjection

14. The part of the bell that is suspended inside is called the clapper.
Adverb Verb Preposition Pronoun

15. I actually learned in band that other types of bells include the carillon, the handbell, and the cowbell.
Noun Preposition Adverb Interjection

16. My grandpa gave us all handbells for Christmas one year. Big mistake!
Pronoun Adjective Conjunction Noun