

Dystopian Literature One Pager Project

A one pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that make up an aesthetically pleasing and detailed interpretation of a subject or piece of literature.

Directions

Share your unique understanding of the text on one page by imaginatively blending your written ideas with colorful images from the story. You should spend at least thirty minutes reading and/or brainstorming ideas before you begin decorating your page. Use a standard size piece of blank paper (8.5 x 11) or you may use a template provided for you.

Below is a list of what should be included on your page:

- Include the title of the story and the author's name.
- Analyze 1 theme or message from the story and use textual evidence to support the theme.
- Provide a brief summary of the story in 1-3 sentences.
- Explain at least 2 different dystopian elements present in the story. For example: Propaganda is used to control citizens, citizens have a fear of the outside world, it's a dehumanized society, technology is extremely advanced, citizens are under constant surveillance, the protagonist questions the existing social and political systems, or individuality is bad.
- Choose 2 or more of the following literary elements to incorporate as it applies to the story: characterization, symbolism, mood, conflict, irony, allusion, imagery, foreshadowing, allegory, or any example of figurative language.
- Include 3 or more illustrations that are directly related to the story.
- You must fill the entire page.
- Your page must be colored.
