

One Pager Project

Film Analysis

A one-pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that make up an aesthetically pleasing and detailed interpretation of a subject, art form, or piece of literature.

Directions

Share your unique understanding of the movie on one page by imaginatively blending your written ideas with colorful images from the story. You should spend at least thirty minutes reading and/or brainstorming ideas before you begin decorating your page. Use a standard size piece of blank paper (8.5 x 11) or you may use a template provided for you.

Below is a list of what should be included on your page:

- Include the title of the movie.
- Include three or more important quotations from the movie.
- Include four or more illustrations/graphic images.
- Include one theme or universal message of the film.
- Include a short description of two or more characters in the movie.
- Include the description of one symbol or significant event from the movie.
- Include one question you have or something that you are curious about based on the film.
- Explain briefly the main conflict of the movie.
- Rate the film, on a scale of 1-5, based on how much you liked or disliked it (5 stars being the highest and meaning you LOVED it).
- You must fill the entire page.
- Your page must be colored.

Grading Rubric

Overall Appearance	Your page is detailed and neat. Images are clear and text is easy to read. The overall appearance is creative and aesthetically pleasing.	10 Points
Information	Your references from the movie are accurate and significant. You include all the components required in the directions.	10 Points
Analysis	Your examples and explanations are insightful and show you have a deep understanding of the film.	10 Points
Writing Conventions	You use proper grammar, punctuation, spelling, and usage in your analysis.	10 Points
Graphics	You chose illustrations that highlight important parts of the film. The graphic elements are neat, colored, and are incorporated seamlessly into the work.	10 Points
