

Name:

Date:

Sentence Types

Part 1: Underline the simple subject(s) and circle the verb(s) in the following sentences.

1. The brown bear at the zoo snored for hours.
2. My big brother told us a scary story by the campfire.
3. She stirs the flour in with the milk slowly.
4. I started a band with my two best friends.
5. Bianca and Juan speak Spanish with their parents.
6. The kids tiptoed downstairs and stole cookies from the pantry.

Part 2: Circle the coordinating conjunction in the following sentences.

1. I wanted to buy the hamster, but my mother said no pets.
2. Henry wants to play basketball, or he wants to play football.
3. Justin wouldn't apologize to his sister, nor would he admit he was wrong.
4. Poppy uses ketchup on her fries, yet she doesn't like the taste of tomatoes.
5. Missy finished the race with a smile, for she was proud of what she accomplished.
6. The laundry was still drying, so I had to wear something else.

Part 3: Circle the subordinating conjunction in the following sentences.

1. Since joining the volleyball league, I have really improved my skills.
2. We should leave for the airport before it's too late.
3. People must do their shopping elsewhere because the store is making renovations.
4. Kelsey will have her drivers license by the time she graduates.
5. Even if I wasn't hungry, I would still eat pizza.
6. Whenever it snows outside, my mom makes us hot chocolate.

Part 4: Identify if the underlined clause is independent (i) or dependent (d) by marking it on the line.

- _____ 1. Let's go to the park where the big playground is.
- _____ 2. My mother watched the game intently as my sister scored a goal.
- _____ 3. The state of New Jersey was founded in 1787, and the state bird is the goldfinch.
- _____ 4. The entire class laughed when I told a joke.
- _____ 5. Unless you have a permit, you can't go fishing in this water.
- _____ 6. While many people visit Florida for Disney World, I prefer Universal Studios.

Part 5: Identify whether each sentence is simple (s), complex (cx), compound (cs), or compound-complex (cc) by marking it on the line.

- _____ 1. "The Vampires Diaries" is my favorite television show, but I also love "Riverdale."
- _____ 2. The student cleaned the chalkboard after she got in trouble.
- _____ 3. The rich movie producer hosted a charity event on Saturday.
- _____ 4. Although it's a rainy day, I plan on running outside and I want to practice dribbling a basketball.
- _____ 5. I love listening to Billie Eilish.
- _____ 6. Do you want to see a movie or do you want to stay home?
- _____ 7. The teacher sipped her coffee as she needed the caffeine.
- _____ 8. When the summer is over, Greg will move to New York and he will start college at NYU.
- _____ 9. The shark swims over 30 miles in under an hour.
- _____ 10. Benny persuaded his friends to come to my party; they all brought me a gift.
- _____ 11. You should follow my friend Ashley online because she posts a lot of good makeup tips.
- _____ 12. Lucy finally went to the grocery store, but she had to leave because she forgot her wallet at home.
- _____ 13. Because they were in a great location, the sunflowers grew 14 feet tall.
- _____ 14. The ice pack reduced the swelling in my ankle.
- _____ 15. Roller skates are easier to use whereas roller blades require more balance.
- _____ 16. Whenever I watch scary movies, I have nightmares and I have to sleep with the lights on.
- _____ 17. Quinn doesn't run track, yet she can sprint really fast.
- _____ 18. The pizzeria doesn't open until one o'clock on Sundays.
- _____ 19. If you don't do your homework, your grades will suffer.
- _____ 20. The books fell off the shelf because they weren't put on correctly, and the shelf is kind of broken.

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

Sentence

Types

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

Clauses

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

A clause is a group of words that includes a subject and a verb.

Every complete sentence must have at least one clause (a subject and predicate).

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

independent clause

An independent clause is a clause that can stand on its own and expresses a complete thought.

- Jim reads a book.
- Patrick looks at the sky.
- Joelle works overnight at the hospital.

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

dependent clause

A dependent clause is a clause that does not express a complete thought. It depends on an independent clause to make the sentence whole.

- Because he was bored, Jim reads a book.
- Patrick looks at the sky even if it's dark outside.
- Although it's not easy, Joelle works overnight at the hospital.

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

4 Sentence Types

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

- Simple
- Compound
- Complex
- Compound-Complex

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

simple sentence

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

A sentence made up of one independent clause.

- The fire burned slowly.
- Chocolate is always a good gift.

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

compound sentence

A sentence made up of two or more independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction.

independent clause

independent clause

Nathan needed to study, so he went to the library.

Coordinating conjunctions don't count as part of the clause.*

Remember your coordinating conjunctions:

- FANBOYS
- For, And, Nor, But, Or, Yet, So

independent clause

independent clause

Pumpkin pie is delicious, but pecan pie is better.

coordinating conjunction

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

compound sentence

Two independent clauses can also come together with a semicolon.

independent clause

The first ukuleles were not for anyone; they were a sign of a Hawaiian royal.

independent clause

independent clause

Severe cases of dehydration can become a life-threatening emergency; you should drink a lot of water when it's hot outside.

independent clause

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

complex sentence

A sentence made up of an independent clause joined by one or more dependent clauses.

dependent clause

independent clause

After eating lunch in the cafeteria, Tim walked to gym class.

To connect independent and dependent clauses, you need subordinating conjunctions.

independent clause

dependent clause

I prefer to eat popcorn while I watch a movie.

subordinating conjunction

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

subordinating conjunctions

There are so many subordinating conjunctions, there's not a simple acronym to remember them. Here are a few examples:

Where

Before

So that

Whereas

Even if

By the time

Wherever

Even though

Until

Although

Provided that

When

Which

Whenever

Because

Since

Whether

If

Though

While

In order to

Unless

After

Once

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

compound-complex sentence

A sentence which has two independent clauses and at least one dependent clause.

After the football game was over, dependent clause

the players returned to the locker room, independent clause

and the coach congratulated them. independent clause

PREVIEW
NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

practice

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

Identify if the underlined clause is independent (i) or dependent (d).

1. We bought Camilla a new pair of jeans because it was her birthday.
2. In order to get hired at the mall, you have to fill out an application.
3. Halloween is my favorite holiday, although Christmas is a close second, and Thanksgiving is pretty fun too.
4. I cannot drink milk without cookies.
5. Earth is the only place in the known universe confirmed to host life unless there are aliens we don't know about.
6. Cats spend 70% of their lives sleeping which means they sleep 13-16 hours a day!

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

answers

independent clause

1) We bought Camilla a new pair of jeans because it was her birthday.

dependent clause

2) In order to get hired at the mall, you have to fill out an application.

dependent clause

3) Halloween is my favorite holiday, although Christmas is a close second, and Thanksgiving is pretty fun too.

independent clause

4) I cannot drink milk without cookies.

dependent clause

5) Earth is the only place in the known universe confirmed to host life unless there are aliens we don't know about.

independent clause

6) Cats spend 70% of their lives sleeping which means they sleep 13-16 hours a day!

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

practice

PREVIEW

Identify whether each sentence is simple (s), complex (cx), compound (cs), or compound-complex (cc).

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

1. Oranges are the largest citrus fruit in the world, and orange juice is the most popular fruit juice in America.
2. Although they are usually thought of as creepy animals, bats are really cute mammals, and they help spread seeds for nuts, figs and cacao.
3. I enjoy spicy food; I can even eat ghost peppers.
4. If you order pizza from Tony's, you should get pepperoni and meatball.
5. My dog gets her haircut once a month.
6. Because I'm lactose intolerant, I don't eat ice cream or cheese.

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

PREVIEW answers

- CS 1. Oranges are the largest citrus fruit in the world, and orange juice is the most popular fruit juice in America.
- CC 2. Although they are usually thought of as creepy animals, bats are really cute mammals, and they help spread seeds for nuts, figs and cacao.
- CS 3. I enjoy spicy food; I can even eat ghost peppers.
- CX 4. If you order pizza from Tony's, you should get pepperoni and meatball.
- S 5. My dog gets her haircut once a month.
- CX 6. Because I'm lactose intolerant, I don't eat ice cream or cheese.

PREVIEW

NOT FOR EDUCATIONAL USE