

Thanksgiving Figurative Language

a. personification b. hyperbole c. allusion d. metaphor e. simile f. oxymoron

- _____ 1. The cool November air whistled in my ear.
- _____ 2. People getting food poisoning on Thanksgiving is strangely normal.
- _____ 3. The pecan pie tasted like heaven on a fork.
- _____ 4. My mom was a busy bee cooking all day; she hardly left the kitchen.
- _____ 5. The turkey weighed a ton.
- _____ 6. My brother tried to help cook too, but he's no Gordon Ramsey.
- _____ 7. The mashed potatoes were as smooth as silk.
- _____ 8. Our fire extinguisher waited patiently close-by in case of emergency.
- _____ 9. When I made my annual toast, there was a deafening silence.
- _____ 10. They call my sister the Picasso of baked goods.
- _____ 11. My great grandmother is 1,000 years old.
- _____ 12. Jennifer is a moth to the flame when it comes to cheesecake.
- _____ 13. I have a love hate relationship with Thanksgiving leftovers.
- _____ 14. Uncle Alan's jokes were like flat soda to the children.
- _____ 15. The giant novelty balloons smiled with exuberance at the Macy's Day Parade.
- _____ 16. Uncle Stanley has Scrooge syndrome.
- _____ 17. We went pumpkin picking for fifty hours last weekend.
- _____ 18. Jim was as skinny as a toothpick, so my grandma forced him to eat more biscuits.
- _____ 19. My dad was a rock, cemented in place, watching the NFL game on television.
- _____ 20. The fact that only male turkeys actually gobble is old news.
- _____ 21. I could smell the cinnamon scented candle in the living room from a mile away!
- _____ 22. My dog was a kid at Disneyland when we gave him some scraps from the table.
- _____ 23. The wishbone fought hard to stay in one piece as we tried to break it apart.
- _____ 24. Turducken, chicken stuffed in a duck stuffed in a turkey, sounds awfully good.
- _____ 25. Julie ran a mile a minute at the annual Turkey Trot 5K Race.
- _____ 26. After eating way too much, I folded on the couch like a dying flower.
- _____ 27. We called my little brother Jimmy "Jimmy Ruth" aka the bambino, for the way he was swinging at the Thanksgiving Piñata.
- _____ 28. The city never sleeps on Black Friday.
- _____ 29. I gained at least twenty pounds after our big Thanksgiving feast.
- _____ 30. When Thanksgiving finally ends, its bittersweet.

Thanksgiving Figurative Language Answer Key

a. personification b. hyperbole c. allusion d. metaphor e. simile f. oxymoron

- A 1. The cool November air whistled in my ear.
- F 2. People getting food poisoning on Thanksgiving is strangely normal.
- E 3. The pecan pie tasted like heaven on a fork.
- D 4. My mom was a busy bee cooking all day; she hardly left the kitchen.
- B 5. The turkey weighed a ton.
- C 6. My brother tried to help cook too, but he's no Gordon Ramsey.
- E 7. The mashed potatoes were as smooth as silk.
- A 8. Our fire extinguisher waited patiently close-by in case of emergency.
- F 9. When I made my annual toast, there was a deafening silence.
- C 10. They call my sister the Picasso of baked goods.
- B 11. My great grandmother is 1,000 years old.
- D 12. Jennifer is a moth to the flame when it comes to cheesecake.
- F 13. I have a love hate relationship with Thanksgiving leftovers.
- E 14. Uncle Alan's jokes were like flat soda to the children.
- A 15. The giant novelty balloons smiled with exuberance at the Macy's Day Parade.
- C 16. Uncle Stanley has Scrooge syndrome.
- B 17. We went pumpkin picking for fifty hours last weekend.
- E 18. Jim was as skinny as a toothpick, so my grandma forced him to eat more biscuits.
- D 19. My dad was a rock, cemented in place, watching the NFL game on television.
- F 20. The fact that only male turkeys actually gobble is old news.
- B 21. I could smell the cinnamon scented candle in the living room from a mile away!
- D 22. My dog was a kid at Disneyland when we gave him some scraps from the table.
- A 23. The wishbone fought hard to stay in one piece as we tried to break it apart.
- F 24. Turducken, chicken stuffed in a duck stuffed in a turkey, sounds awfully good.
- B 25. Julie ran a mile a minute at the annual Turkey Trot 5K Race.
- E 26. After eating way too much, I folded on the couch like a dying flower.
- C 27. We called my little brother Jimmy "Jimmy Ruth" aka the bambino, for the way he was swinging at the Thanksgiving Piñata.
- A 28. The city never sleeps on Black Friday.
- B 29. I gained at least twenty pounds after our big Thanksgiving feast.
- F 30. When Thanksgiving finally ends, its bittersweet.