

The Hitchhiker by Lucille Fletcher

One Pager Project

A one-pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that make up an aesthetically pleasing and detailed interpretation of a subject or piece of literature.

Directions

Share your unique understanding of the text on one page by imaginatively blending your written ideas with colorful images from the story. You should spend at least thirty minutes reading and/or brainstorming ideas before you begin decorating your page. Use a standard size piece of blank paper (8.5 x 11) or you may use a template provided for you.

Below is a list of what should be included on your page:

- Include the title of the play and the author's name.
- Include four or more illustrations/graphic images.
- Explain one theme from the story.
- Describe one example of how the author creates suspense in the story.
- Include one example of conflict from the story (internal or external).
- Choose four of the following literary elements to incorporate into your project: flashback, foreshadowing, symbolism, setting, mood, tone, irony, characterization, dialogue, imagery, or any example of figurative language. You will analyze the elements as they pertain to the story (do not define what they are in general, but explain how they are part of the story specifically).
- You must fill the entire page.
- Your page must be colored.

Grading Rubric

Overall Appearance	Your page is detailed and neat. Images are clear and text is easy to read. The overall appearance is aesthetically pleasing.	10 Points
Creativity	You show you understand the literature in an original way that makes sense and highlights your creativity.	10 Points
Information	You include all the components required in the directions. Your information is accurate.	10 Points
Analysis	The references and examples you choose are both meaningful and insightful. They depict important ideas from the story.	10 Points
Graphics	You choose illustrations that are relevant. The graphic elements are distinct, colored, and incorporated seamlessly into the work.	10 Points
