

Women's History Month

One Pager Project

A one-pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that make up an aesthetically pleasing and detailed interpretation of a subject. For this one-pager, you will be researching one of the following important women in history and creating a graphic representation of your work to share with the class.

Eleanor Roosevelt
Maya Angelou
Amelia Earhart
Frida Kahlo
Ruth Bader Ginsburg
Sandra Day O'Connor
Madeleine Albright
Malala Yousafzai
Shirley Chisholm
Harper Lee
Sojourner Truth
Mother Teresa
Susan B. Anthony
Harriet Tubman

Georgia O'Keeffe
Alice Paul
Betty Friedan
Mary Wollstonecraft
Angela Davis
Alice Walker
Victoria Woodhull
Elizabeth Cady Stanton
Jane Austen
Anne Frank
Queen Elizabeth I
Marie Curie
Mary McLeod Bethune
Billie Holiday

Directions:

Above is a list of some of the most influential women of all time. Choose one person to research and study. You should spend at least thirty minutes reading and brainstorming ideas before you begin decorating your page. Use a standard size piece of blank paper (8.5 x 11) or you may use a template provided for you.

Below is a list of what should be included on your page:

- Include the full name of the person you research.
- Include a title of work, group, occupation, or event that they are most famous for.
- Include two or more quotations from the person you are studying.
- Include three or more words that describe the person's personality.
- Include three or more illustrations/graphic images that symbolize the person's life.
- Include four or more facts about the person that you've learned about.
- You must fill the entire page. You don't want a lot of empty space (if any).
- Your page must be colored.

Grading Rubric:

Overall Appearance	Your page is detailed and neat. Images are clear and text is easy to read. The overall appearance is creative and aesthetically pleasing.	10 Points
Information	Your work shows you have done thorough research for the project. Your facts are accurate and relevant.	10 Points
Quotations	The quotations you chose are both meaningful and accurate. They depict the person's impact on society and were chosen carefully.	10 Points
Graphics	You chose illustrations that highlight important parts of the person's life. The graphic elements are neat, colored, and are incorporated seamlessly into the work.	10 Points
